The Concert given on Saturday evening by the Musical Union Choir, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, for the benefit of the poor, was well attended.

An election of officers will be held at the State Meeting of the Y. M. C. Association, on next Tuesday evening, January 11th, at the Reading Room.

The advent of the New Year was commemorated on last Friday night and Saturday morning by considerable firing of small arms and some noise.

At a meeting of the Franklin Literary Institute on Monday evening last, the following named officers were elected for the ensuing term.

The dedication of the new and splendid Hall of the Union Fire Company in Market street, on Saturday afternoon, was the occasion of much pride and good feeling among the members of the Company especially, and also by our citizens generally.

The only ball thus far in Lebanon this season took place on Friday evening in the Town Hall. It was given by a party who styled themselves the "Shifter Hose company."

We had the pleasure, on Monday evening, of welcoming our staunch democratic friend, John H. Slocum, who has left of absence from his Representative duties in Philadelphia, to visit his old home and friends.

January Court commenced on Monday. At the time of putting the Advertiser to press no business of importance had been transacted.

We learn that the Assessments made by the Assessors of the West Ward of Lebanon, have been considerably increased upon revision by the Commissioners.

An Item for Sportsmen.—Olose of the Shooting Season.—According to the law passed at the last session of the Legislature, for the preservation of game, the season for shooting, trapping or destroying in any other way pheasants, partridges, woodcock or rabbits, closed on the 1st inst.

The congregation of Zion's Lutheran Church are about making some improvements to their grounds and to the church itself.—An iron fence is to be substituted for the present wooden one, and the outside of the edifice repaired. The cost of the improvement is estimated at $1500.

We copied four marriages last week from the Courier pertaining to have been by Mr. Hester, which were bogus. They were sent by mail to our neighbor, who appeared the writer to have been Mr. Hester's. A reward will be paid for the detection of the person that sent them.

The Sheriff lately sold the following property at public sale:—Michael Hoffman's property, in this Borough, was bought by Mr. J. G. Goodhart, for $1540.

The attention of Teachers is directed to the notice in our advertising columns. Henry Hartman's "Lager-beer" has moved his Saloon back to the old place in Cumberland street, west of Plank Road.

A friend, who is afflicted with a looseness of tongue, is anxious that we should put more locals in the Advertiser. We are in the habit of publishing all that transpires worthy of notice, but as that is not sufficient, we give an additional item for his especial benefit.

New Post Office.—The Post Master General has ordered the establishment of a Post Office, at "Richland Station," Lebanon Co., on the Le. Val. R. R., and appointed Bill Kloppe, Esq., Post Master.

The Eagle Hotel restaurant is now in the proprietorship of Mr. Henry Sieglis, Mr. G. F. Reinhard having retired on the 1st inst. Its reputation for good eating and drinking will be maintained, and, if possible, improved upon.

The Cornwall Teachers' Association is at present in a flourishing condition. A spirited meeting was held at School House No. 7, on the 1st inst., when all the members, but Mr. Killemer, were present.

On motion, it was resolved that a copy of the Minutes of the Institute be furnished to the editors of the Eng. Advertiser, for publication in its columns.
