_____ WHEN DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES CRASE TO LEAD, WE CRASE TO FOLLOW."

WM. M. BRESLIN, Editor and Proprietor.

LEBANON, PA.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1859.

Or On the outside of to day's paper we give the 1st annual Message of Gov. Packer. It is a short document and will be read by most of our readers. His "information of the state of the Commonwealth," is very satisfactory on all subjects, but the moment he oversteps the Constitutional requirements in his message, he blunders into wrong ideas, expressed with bad taste, and entirely expressed with bad taste, and entirely gratuitous. We are sorry that the Governor (who certainly cannot have become indifferent to the welfare of the Democracy,) knowing the difference of Opinion entertained on this national *come indifferent to the welfare of the the vote was year, 94; nays, 6. question in our ranks, should have permitted himself to discuss the Kansas question, unless he desires a continuance of the bad feelings engendered by the controversy. We commend the message in all that relates to Pennsylvania, as a wise, practical, and comprehensive state-paper.

Mr. Colfax, member of the House of Representatives from Indiana, has introduced a bill for the organization of a new Territory, to be called all the recently-discovered gold region of Pike's Peak, Cherry Valley, &c., und will extend from the one-hundredand-third parallel of longitude to the crest of the Rocky Mountains, and from the thirty-seventh to the forty-second parallel of latitude-making nearly a square. It will include part of the present Territories of Kansas, Nebraska, Utah and New Mexico-the greater part being taken from Kansas. Mr. at least twenty thousand persons in the proposed Territory.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

This body convened on the 4th inst. The Senate was called to order by Mr. Cars-WELL Speaker. The returns of the election of members of the Senate were transmitted by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and read by the Clerk, after which the roll was called. The Senate then proceeded to the election of a Speaker, and Mr. CRESWELL, democrat, having been elected, was conducted to the Chair, addressed the Senate and was qualified with the administration of the oath by Mr. Scorietn. The Senators elect, who had not been sworn, subsequently took the oath. Mr. W. H. MILLER was then e lected and qualified as Chiof Clerk, and Mr. FRAN-CIS. M. HUTCHINSON as Assistant Clerk.

Mesers. Finney and RANDALL were appointed to inform the House of the organization of the Sense and a committee to act with the committee of the House for the information of the Governor, was appointed. The Senate adjourned to 10 o'clock, Japuary 5th.

On the 5th inst., the Senate metand after hearing the Reports of the Committee, appointed the day before, and the reading of a number of bills, among which were one to make the sessions of the Supreme Court permanent at Harrisburg, and one to prohibit the issue and circulation of bank notes of a less denomination than twenty dollars the Senate proceeded to the election of its addi-

Thursday, Jan. 6,1859. The Congressional productings to-day were quite interesting. In the Senate, the Constitution adopted by the late Convention in Kansas was presented by Mr. SEWARD, and referred to the Committee on Territories. The French Spoliation bill was taken up, on motion of Mr. Cuir-TENDEN, who addressed the Senate in vindication of the justice of the claims. The bill is the one introduced during the last Session, and appropriates a sum not exceeding five millions. The Pacific Railroad bill then coming up as the special order, the Spoliation bill was postponed, and Mr. BIGLER finished his speech, commenced on Welnesday, in favor of the Railroad. In the House, the special order was the bill for the codification of the Revenue laws, and for other purposes, which was considered in Committee of the Whole. The Indian appropriation bill was next considered in Committee, and gave rise to a spirited debate, which continued until the adjournment, and during which Messrs. Giddings of Ohio, and BRY-AN, of Texas, entered into a discussion of the relative good and evil resulting from the annexation of the latter State.

Mr. Seward, offered a resolution calling on the President for all the recent correspondence between the British Government and the American minister at London, touching the abuses of the American flag in connection with the slave trade, with special reference to the slaver Wanderer. The consideration of the French spoliation bill was resumed; but, owing to the sickness of Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, who was speaking against the bill, the Pacific Railroad bill was taken up ... On this subject considerable debate ensued in favor and a-
