

Lebanon Advertiser.

TERMS, $1.50 A YEAR. LEBANON, PA. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1889. HOME AFFAIRS.

Cards, Circulars, Handbills, Posters, etc., printed at the Advertiser office, at low rates and short notice—and in the most elegant style.

Just Printed at the Advertiser Office, Notices to Quit, Vendue Notes and Summons.

Also a fine lot of double and single Acknowledgment Deeds; Executor, Administrator and Trustee Deeds; Mortgages, &c. Also, Common and Judgment Bonds, and all kinds of Justice's and Constable's Bonds.

The School Teachers of this county are reminded that next Friday and Saturday the Institute will be held in this borough.

Lecture.—Rev. G. F. Krotel, of Lancaster, will deliver his splendid Lecture of "The New Year," before the Young Men's Christian Association, on Thursday evening, January 13, 1889, in the Court House.

Frosted Limbs, Chilblains.—At this season of the year persons suffer much with Frosted Limbs and Chilblains.

Court last week granted Tavern Licenses to the following persons, viz:—Jacob Rudy and C. W. Kohle, Lebanon; Henry Bitt, North Lebanon; and Fred Koek, Cornwall.

On Monday morning, at 8 o'clock, the thermometer at Lemberger's Drug Store stood at 4 degrees below zero.

The Reading Gazette appeared in an entire new dress on the opening of the New Year. The Gazette is one of the best papers published, and deserves the prosperity which it commands in the market.

The annual report of Sinking Springs Insurance company appears in our advertising columns. It is very clear and explicit, and will no doubt prove satisfactory to the Members.

A Fellow in Love.—A friend handed us the following non-fide love letter, recaptured by a girl in the neighborhood.

John A. Weigley has been appointed Post Master at Millers Centre, Lebanon county, in place of O. Weigley, Esq., resigned.

We regret to learn that our old and staunch Democratic friend, O. Weigley, Esq., has "disposed of his goods," and intends leaving the county.

F. Phillips, Esq., County Superintendent of this borough, having moved last week to the Academy, into the room vacated by Mr. Kluge.

Our readers cannot be too careful in taking other Bank Notes of a distance, or gold and silver coin, as the counterfeiters on all new issues.

Michael Betz was sentenced on Thursday afternoon, and that same night slept (if at all) in the Penitentiary at Philadelphia.—Rather quick work.

Com. vs. Daniel Moufair, Daniel Biever, Levi Zimmerman and David Shultz.—Malicious Misconduct. Not guilty, but defendants to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Richard Herbert—Assault and Battery. Not guilty and prosecutor, John Spitzer, to pay the costs.

Com. vs. F. J. Snyder—Assault and Battery. Pleaded guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and costs.

Com. vs. Michael Disinger and Conrad Brockey. Supervisors of Heidelberg Township—For not repairing roads. Not guilty, and prosecutor, Michael Groh, to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Wm. School—Nuisance. Guilty.—Sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Com. vs. Jesse Wise—Assault and Battery.—Guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar, costs, and be imprisoned 10 days.

Com. vs. Michael Betz—Forgery.—The Grand Jury in this case found seven true bills: Betz pleaded guilty on five of the bills, and the District Attorney entered Nullo Prosequi on the other two.

Com. vs. Elijah Deckard—Larceny.—The Grand Jury returned the indictment in this case Ignoramus.

At a regular monthly meeting of the Board of Managers, of the Young Men's Christian Association, of this place, held on Tuesday evening, January 4th, 1889, another business transaction the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the heartiest thanks and commendations of the Y. M. C. A. be hereby extended to Dr. E. F. Schneck and Mr. Conrad Mark, for the energy, zeal, perseverance and musical proficiency so cheerfully accorded by them to the cause of Christian Charity, and as a mark of respect and grateful acknowledgement for their arduous labors in our behalf, a free ticket to the Reading Room and Library of the Association be presented to each of them.

Resolved, That the members of the "Musical Union" write and receive the sincere gratitude of the Y. M. C. A. for their enthusiastic response to this demand upon their time and patience and for the delightful music which has won for them and us the golden opinions of the Community.

Resolved, That the Association is mindful of, and deeply grateful to the perseverance of the Band, for their pleasing variety their orchestral music afforded. Also to Modeste Demings for their artistic Piano Music.

Resolved, That our thanks are due Messrs. Waltz & Reddel for furnishing a Piano, expressly ordered for the Concert; and we also express our obligations to Mr. John M. Good for the use of his Melodeon.

Resolved, That free tickets to the course of Lectures given by the Association, this winter, be distributed to every member of the Y. M. C. A. of Lebanon, and that the members of the Association, in appreciation of their services, be invited to attend a Social Meeting on New Year's Evening.
