THE VALUE OF A LONG NOSE .- The following eireumstance, it is believed happened to the learnad sergeant, (Hill.) He had a remarkably long nose, and being one day out riding, was flung by his horse, and fell upon his face, in the middle of the road. A countryman, who saw the occurrence, ran bastily up, raised the sergeant from the dirt, and asked him whether he was much burt. The forgeant replied in the negative. "I see, zur," said the rustin, grinning, "yer ploushare saved

How to BE VALUED .- Girls, listen to some ad. vice; you need it badly enough-there's not a question of that. Don't give your beaux a chance to feel sure of you. It's bad for them, and it's worse for you. There are exceptions, to be sure; there are men Ja who may be safely trusted with the knowledge who may be safely trusted with the knowledge that they are all in all to the heart of the woman they are wooing; but such ones are deplorably few.

The ardor of most men lasts only so long as lasts their uncertainty. Keep them off, and they'll grow more and more devoted—bring them near, and they'll cool off as fast as a flat iron in the smow. Let them think you care little for them or that love, and they will try haid to become more worthy of your regard. Not first not strive to wound their feelings—we don't mean that—humanity forbid! but don't make yourself cheap; manity forbid ! but don't make yourself cheap; just keep your own counsel: and the more hopelessly in love you are the more do you guard the knowledge of that fact from your lover. Keep it down and in, all that you possibly can, till the magic words are said that make you one; then take off the bands, but do it gralually-"grow upon him;" show him by degrees the strength of the passion which he has awakened in your soul.

GEN. Scorr was robbed of his overcoat by a couple of clever rascals at the St. Charles, New Orleans, last week. As he was going up the stairs, surrounded by a crowd, two individuals in sisted upon relieving him of his avercont. Gracefully he consented, supposing that the act was only a part of the hospitality which had been offered him: but unfortunately he has beard nothing since of his supposed admirers or his overcont, and has had to procure another.

ANCIENT COINS .- Among the coins presented to the Tennessee Historical Society recently, was a Grecian Drachma, of silver, of value about 17 cents, coined in the days of Alexander the Great, 335 years B. C. It was picked up in the streets of the once burried Pompeii by Wm. H. Polk, Esq, while he was in Italy as charge d'affairs of the United States to the Two Cicilies, in 1845. It has on one side the head of Alexander, on the reverse a figure of Jupiter sitting in a chair, holding a hasta pura (spear of favor) in his left hand, and an imperial eagle in the right. There are several symbols, and the inscription Alexandron on the same side.

AN IMMENSE LAND CASE IN COURT-$20,000,000 INVOLVED .-- There is now before the United States Supreme Court, at Washington; a case in which the United States Government is prosecuting Captain John A. Sutter, of world-wide distinction, to obtain possession of an immense tract of country, including both the cities of Sacramento and Marysville, and being worth not less than twenty millions of dollars ! Sutler claims thirty.three square leagues of land lying upon the Sacramento, Feather and American rivers, under two grants -one of eleven leagues, made by Governor B. Alvarado in 1841, and the other of twenty-two leagues, made by Gov. Micheltorenn in 1845.
The U. States deny the genuineness and validity The U. States deny the genuineness and validity of each of these grants upon many grounds, and further contend that if the grants are genuine and valid, they embrace within their limits the land wholesale or Retail, as we will keep all kinds of COAL. of each of these grants upon many grounds, and lying south of the Three Peaks and between the Sacramento and Feather Rivers, and no land to Sacramento and Feather Rivers, and no land to the south or east of the Feather River. Two sets of counsel appear for Futter, both acting under written powers of attorney, and these counsel endeavor to locate that land in different manners—John J. Crittenden and R. J. One of the masons engaged on the railway at Atminster, in England, is the proprietor of remarkable teeth. Each tooth is a double one, and he thinks nothing of biting in two a piece of iron half an inch thick. - With his teeth nione he has lifted a hogehead of cider six inches from the ground; and it is quite an amusement to him to crack up a pebble between his teeth as engily as some of the best of us can erack a nut.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS.—The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnishes the components of fields, bone, muscle, nerve and integument.
