[If our readers of the passage of said resolution, when half a dozon similar have already been adopted they must ask somebody that knows-we really do not.] A resolution providing for the pay of witnesses, serving subposnes, &c., in the case of the contested election of members of the Assembly in Cambria county was then adopted. It is worthy of note that although the House has a Sergeant-at-arms with four assistants, whose duties are the above, still outsiders are paid.]-Mr. Foster, and several others asked leave to record their notes on the Record question, Of An ox weighing 4,160 pounds course. The whole county was wandering why they did not vote. The Judiciary committee reported a bill empowering Prothonotaries and Clerks to administer oaths; also an act to prevent defacing of bank notes. Mr. Eckman read a bill incorporating the Union Cemetery Association of the borough of Lebanon and vicinity .-Referred to committee. Mr. Barksdale read a bill to reduce and limit the annual tax for school and building purposes. Referred to committee on Education.

TUESDAY, Feb, 1, 1859. In the Sencte, a petition from Venango county, praying that the office of County Superintendent of Common Schools may be abolished, was presented; also for a law limiting taxation to ten mills on the dollar. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the joint resolution from -Legislative Record. Mr. Turney said that nore time had already been consumed than would pay for a Record for the whole session, and to put an end to the interminable broil would vote for a resolution inviting proposals for a new Record. The House resolution was voted down and another resolution for a new contract was adopted. Adjourned.

In the House, an act to abolish the office of Sealer of Weights and Measures in Schoylkill, Lebanon, Backs and Lebigh counties passed to second reading. The private calender consumed the greater portion of the time of the session. WEDNESDAY, Feb. 2, 1859. The Sexate considered a resolution relative to the Germantown Passenger railway; relative to a railroad between Hagerstown and Chambersburg; relative to mileage to the clerk of a contested election committee; after which they discussed, in amicable spirits, their dinners. [We hope the landlords of Harrisburg furnish good dinners-occasionally sourkent-to the members, because men who work as hard as they do should have good feed. THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, of LEBANON, have opened a large and commodious READING ROOM and LIBRARY, at the TEEPER-ANCE HALL, opposite the Post-office. The principal Newspapers and Magazines of the country will always be found on file. The valuable collection of books formerly constituting the "VISTAR LIBRARY," are also on our shelves and additional books are now being selected to make the Library of the Association one of the most valuable in the State. Contributions of suitable books are solicited from all who desire to see the young men of our town supplied with a healthy moral and religious literature. We intend that the Library shall be comprehensive and select. SIMON J. STINE, Wim. G. WARD and THEODORE OVES, the Committee appointed, will be happy to receive such contributions of books or a note stating where they may be called for. Reading Room open every Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, from 6 to 10 o'clock. Persons desiring to become members should do so immediately.
