COUNTY TREASURY ROBBED IN 10 mto. We learn from the Coshocton Democrat that on Friday night last, the Treasury of Coshecton county. Olic, was robbed of about $18,000. The Court Olic, was robbed of about $18,000. The Court of Common Piens was in session, trying three men for a recent burglary in Walhonding. A large number of witnesses from Dresden and the western part of the county had just been discharged, and to accommodate such a free as desired to go home on the eleven o'clock train, the Treasurer had kept his office open to cash their orders. He was about closing the office, when three men entered, one of whom asked the amount of tax on a lot in West Carlisla. The Treasurer turned to got the tax duplicate, when suddenly a large shawl was thrown over his head, his arms pinioned and his body forced to the floor. He was instantly gagged, his arms tied behind him with a cord, his legs also tied, and his eyes kept blindfolded. He thinks one man looked the office door and stood sentinel; one stood over him, while the other took the keys, unlooked and robbed the safe. They then relocked the safe and took the keys with them. "All this was done before the arrival of the them. All this was done before the arrival of the come in after the cobbers left, and they had time SAVING FUND to get upon the train. Mr. Ketchem remained in this painful condition for a long time before he worked the gag from his mouth. When he did. he commenced hallooing for help-but people were Zenerally in bed, and it was near one o'clock when he was heard by Hiram Taylor, who aroused the Shoriff, and breaking in the door, found the Treasarer tied upon the floor, nearly exhausted, his face black from the effects of the gag. The cord had ent into the flesh of his arms—his legs were so benumbed be could scarcely stand, and he would have died before morning unless released.

The Treasurer is unable to describe but one o the men, the one who wroke to him, who is about thirty five or forty years old, black, straight whiskers over all his chio, high cheek bone, gentleman. ly in appearance, and about five feet nine or ten inches high. Such a man has been noticed in attendance on this trial, and no doubt belongs to the same gang. We learn that a reward of $2,000 is offered for the robbers, and $3,000 for the recovery of the money,

AN AVAILABLE CANDIDATE .- If there be any who think that Mr. Fremont cannot run as well now as he did in 1856, the following item from the Mariposa Democrat may serve to enlighten

"On Thursday last, Fremont was seen to pass through Quartsburg, and take his way down the Stockton road, in a buggy, at a rattling speed. This, of course, excited the curiosity of the people in that place, but before any conclusion could be arrived at, as to the probable cause, the under Sheriffhove in view, also at full speed. On being questioned as to the cause of his hurry, the officer replied that he had no time to stop, as he was in haste to overtake Fromont. Whether he effected the arrest we have not yet learned. It is probable. the arrest we have not yet learned. It is probable, however, that the Colonel had too much the start of him. The Colonel is hard to catch when he gets a good start.

It gives me already to said my testimony to the area.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University, Philadelphia.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of Diesaes of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by Selfabuse or Excess of venery, I do not know his superior in his profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the ungottunate yichim of early indiscret in, to recommend him as, one, in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.
