The Delegate elections in this borough on Saturday evening were well attended, hild Harmonious. The feeling of the democracy is an earnest due to tribiaph this Spring, and for the William out of that diject, the ficket published in another column is presented to the people, It being believed to be unexceptionable. We have 'now been flittering away our strength over petty squabbles long enough. So let us go to work and elect our candidates. The few past years have proved that nothing is to be gained by the Democracy electing to diffice incliders of the opposition party. Let us follow the example set for us at the fall elections by our opponents, and vote the ticket, especially when it is a good one.

The New Depot of the Lebanor Valley Branch Railroad, at Harrisburg, is now completed, and, as we learn from the Harrisburg papers, was lighted with ghe for the first time last Saturday evening. The fixtures are of a new and beautiful style, and were greatly admired by large number of ladles and gentlemen who visited the Depot during the evening.

The Harrisburg Depot is a frame building, but it is substantially built, very commodious, and neatly finished, particularly in that portion of the interior set apart for the accommodation of travellers.

D. of Baltimore, one of the most eloquent and fluent speakers of the country, will deliver the fourth Lecture of the course before the Young Men's Christian Association, in the Court House, on this (WED-NESDAY) evening. Subject-"Eloquence essential to Republican Institutions." Mr. Mc-Cron has great oratorial powers himself, and on a subject, such as he has selected will give a pleasing treat to those who go to hear him.

It is very desirable that there should be a large turn out at this Lecture. The funds of the association have been exhausted by the frequent calls upon them during the winter for charitable and other purposes. Let their Treasury be re-plenished, especially as it can now be done in a manner which returns more than the value of money contributed.

The LEGISLATURE.—The following proceedings of the State Legislature, for the past week, we glean from the Degislative Record. The bill incorporating the Union Cemetery association of Lebanon and vicinity was reported by committee in the Senate, considered and passed first reading; an act to revive the charter of the Lancaster, Lebanon, and Pine Grove rail-road, was reported by the committee with amendments. An ineffectual effort was made to reduce the compensation of members from $700 to $500. The Appropriation bill was under consideration most of the week in the House.

The Governor signed last Fri-'day the bill "relative to the borough of Lebanon," In consequence no Supervisors will be elected in this borough bereafter. The Town idly swelling up, and arrangements are already Council appoint one or more Street Commissioners, whose duties embrace a supervision of our streets and alleys and keep them in proper repair. Hereafter no new streets are to be opened, or old ones extended, wiffiout the formal consent of the Town Council.

The last that was heard of him, he was bewailing his fate, and said he would send no more beans to them fellows up there, for they never sent him a cent or a scratch market himself .- Harrisburg Patriot.

Proceedings of the South Lebanon Teachers' Association. This Association held its 14th meeting, on Saturday, March 5, 1859, when proceedings were as follows:-

The meeting was called to order by the President, L. M. Leiwig, and opened by singing .-Written Arithmetic was taken up, and conducted by J. H. Bucher. Considerable time was profitably spent in this exercise, with great earnestness and spirit. Mental Arithmetic was next taken up. Physical Geography being next in order, it was creditably disposed of. An animated discussion then arose, on the following Subjects, viz: First, Should parents visit the schools?-Second Should a teacher always stand in teach ing? in which all the members participated .-Grammer was next taken sin and conducted in an earnest and spirited manner. Exercises were then taken on the Elocutionary Chart and declamation. The meeting closed by singing.

THE DEFUNCT LANCASTER BANK .- The Lancaster Express, in reply to numerous inquiries as vening, and nominated the following excellent caster Bank, and the probable value of its notes, says that so far as the filed account of the assignes is concerned, the notes are utterly worthless, and that officer's final account will not show an increased value; that the notes still live a contingent value, owing to the fact that a few persons who owe the Bank, are buying them up at 10 to 15 cents on the dollar, to pay their liabilities, but as soon as this class of dobts are paid, the notes will be worth nothing; and that the only rescource left to the noteholders is the individual liability of the stockholders and directors, who are fully able and responsible, and if the matter were pushed according to the provisions. says that so far as the filed account of the assigmatter were pushed according to the provisions of the charter, the notes would be worth dollar for doilar; but this would involve protracted and expensive litigation. It also adds that it has heard that some of the noteholders have resolved Mexico had seven Presidents in the month of IRON ORE SHELTED WITH RAW COALS .- The proprietors of the Iron Mountain in Missouri have succeeded in smelting the ore from the mountain with the raw bituminous coal that is mined in the vicinity of St. Louis. The experiment is pronounced to be eminently successful. The question will now be whether ore shall be transported to the coal and the furnaces crected in the vicinity of St. Louis, or the coal carried to the iron, and the furnaces be built and the labor employed at the

THE SUTER TRIAL .- The case of Lowis Suter, charged with passing counterfeit money on James Spence, was resumed yesterday, before the U.S. District Court, in Philadelahia. It was shown that Suter is a stage proprietor in Lancaster, and that when he passed this money the had been receiving many sums from drivers, and that he was not particular in testing the genuineness of the coin. The Penusylvania Bank Building, in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, was sold at auction last Tuesday evening, at the Merchant Exchange, to the Philadelphia Dank, for $163,100. It cost about $300,000. Cow Story .- The St. Louis Herald tells a tough but lively story of a cow in that city, chasing a young man wearing a flaming red shirt .--He ran and tho cow ran, up one street and down another, the cow making rather the best "time." Red shirt thought to escape by dodging behind such persons as be came across, the result was that several innocent pedestrians were perforated and carried off upon the infuriated animal's horns. Red shirt finally sought safety in a house, up the stairs of which he ran, the cow following for a few steps. She was finally driven out, and officer Finon placed two balls from his revolver into her head, which put a quietns upon her hostile demonstrations upon red shirt. The red shirt demonstrations upon red shirt. The red shirt gentleman, in consideration of his hair breadth scape, demanded the cow's carcass, and upon the officer refusing to permit him to remove it, he reated a disturbance which led to his being ar ested and locked up.
