TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rice to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable sensations, and vague feurs in the mind. [See pages, 27, 28, 29, 61 pr. K.'s book on "Self-Preservation."]

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak; he is dull, irresolute, and engages even in his sports with less cuergy than usual.

If he emancipate bimself bofore the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considerations which should awakez the attention of all who are similarly situated.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manuel." Numerous case of, Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness; or disarrangement of the functions produced by Self-abuse, or Ecosysion, I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty-years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscret in, to recommend him as one, in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.
