ANOTHER MURDER IN N. Y. From the Journal of Commerce, March 9th.

About half past eight o'clock last evening, the Fourth Ward was the scene of another brutal murder, which resulted in a woman being instantly killed by a Chinaman, and two others badly injured. From the facts furnished our reporter, it appears that the Chinaman, whose name is Charles Appo, and who resides at No. 47 Oliver street, has for some time lived unbappily with his wife. The neighbors have frequently been compelled to interfere between them, as Appo and his wife would fight to such an extent that it was at times feared he would kill her .--On Monday afternoon Appo beat his wife so badly that she was compelled to take refuge with one of her neighbors over night. This seemed to annoy Appo, and yesterday afternoon he renewed his attack upon her. Fearing the interference of some of the women, he left the house, but about half past eight in the evening returned home, and

If you cannot go to the election yourself, send your next best friend, and give him a Democratic ticket to vote. In all cases be sure of voting the Democratic ticket. Lebanon Deposit Bank.-The deposits of this institution have kept up, during the money crisis, to a remarkable figure. While confidence was shaken elsewhere, its security was not guaranteed. The ample reponsibility of the gentlemen connected with it, each of whom is bound for it to the full amount of all he is worth, is a safe guaranty to depositors against loss; and this, in connection with the fact that depositors are paid interest for their deposits, accounts for 做 the active business of the Bank.

Rev. John McCron, D. D., of Baltimore, delivered a Lecture, on Wednesday eve ming last, in the Court House, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. The attendance was pretty large, and the applause he elicited proved that his subject and delivery were sceptable. Still, the modulations of his voice so frequently passed from one extreme to the other, that it was difficult for the hearer to keep the connexion. One of the qualifications of the true orator is to be heard and understood by his hearers, in which Mr. McCron occasionally failed,-However, the room may have had something to do with this. The next and last Lecture will be by Rev. Dr. Schaff, of Mercersburg.

THE GOULDY TRADEGY .- We learn that Mr. Francis Gouldy, who, with nearly all the members of his household, was assaulted by his son Francis, in October last, while in a frenzy, hasso far recovered from his injuries to be able to attend service on Sunday last, at the Thirty fourth street Church, of which he is emember. He had however, to be supported by a friend. He will never recover his normal vigor. A large piece of his skull was removed by the surgeon. His face is under partial paralysis from the results of the wounds. A month since, Mrs. Gouldey, who was enciente at the time of the tragedy, gave birth to a daughter, and has already recovered from her confinement. All the other members of the family, except the servant who died at the City Hospital, have quite recovered .- N. Y. Tre Wood's HAIB RESTORATIVE .- This is said to be a most excellent preparation, the result of extensive scientific research, and is used with great success. However venerable a bald head may appear, it is seldom considered as either comfortable or elegant, and those thus afficted should try Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and be enabled to rejoice once more in the plentitude of nature's great ornament. CAUTION .- Beware of worthless imitations as several are already in the market, called by dif-ferent names. Use none unless the words (Pro-fessor Wood's Hair Restorative, Depot St. Louis,
