Time et LEBANON, PA. Jen WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1859.

We publish the proceedings of the late Democratic State Convention in this paper. In relation thereto the Reading Gazette says :- The ticket as regards character and qualifications, the people by any party.

Mr. Wright, our candidate for Audiand a resident of what was the borough of Frankford under the old municipal last as Speaker of that body), and three as a Senator. During this long term of familiar with the affairs of our State government, in all their multitudinous details, and has carned for himself a reputation for honesty, fidelity, and conscientious devotion to Democratic principles, of which any public man might well be proud. Mr. Wright possesses all the qualifications that are so essential to the important position of the chief of the Accounting Department of our Government. He has capacity, experience, and above all, that fearless integrity of character which insures an adherence to the strict line of duty under all circumstances and in every emergency. In short, he is a man whom the people can depend upon, and to whom they may entrust their affairs in the most implicit confidence. If qualifications so requisite in all puplic servants, are yet estimated at their proper walue, he will be elected by a triumphant mejority.

RESOLUTIONS. Resolved, That the Democracy of Pennsylvania have unabated and full confidence in the pachanan, the President of the United States, and desire to sustain his administration from a conviction of its principles with the best interests of our common country.

Resolved, That the complete success achieved by James Buchanan in amicably settling with Great Britain, in accordance with the American doctrine, the long mooted question of "the freedom of the seas," from the surveillance and annoyance of a maritime police; in quieting the civil broils of Kansas; in promptly and effectually suppressing an armed dissaffection and rebellion in Utah; in speedily terminating the In- bill, and gave the canals for far less F. Packer, dian wars which threatened to desolute our Western frontier; and his resolute efforts to secure for American trade and travel safe and proper transit routes between the Atlantic and Pacific ecans; to maintain the influence and honor of the nation and to protect the lives, business and property of citizens of the United States in the anarchical or ill-governed States of Mexco, Central America and South America, entitle him to the esteem, gratitude and confidence of the people of Pennsylvania, as well as of the whole Union.

Resolved. That the Democracy of Pennsylva nia have always advocated and still advocate au adequate encouragement and discriminating protection of iron and coal and of the industrial in terests of this State, within the scope of a tariff for necessary revenue; and believing that the royenue accruing from the existing tariff will be insufficient for the unavoidable expenditures of the Federal Government, and that an obstinute adherence to it will result in the accumulation, in time of peace, of a heavy national debt, always dangerous to the peace, liberty and prosperity of a free people, they now, by their representatives in this Convention, earnestly invite the people of this State, by a frank and cordial support of the policy of the first President whom Pennsylvania has given to the Union, to aid and strongthen him in his future endeavors to procure a revision of the tariff act of 1857 by the next Congress, on the principle set forth in his last annual message.

Resolved. That while an economical administration of the government of the Union is demanded by the whole spirit of our institutions, and the best judgment of the people : it is, at the same time, incumbent upon us to sustain the proper dignity of the country at home and abroad, and not to neglect the prompt supply of all necessary means of defence against foreign aggression, and for the assertion and protection of the rights of all Amercan citizens everywhere, and especially on this continent.

Resolved. That the acquisition of the Island of Cuba by honorable and peaceful means, would be of vast importance to the prosperity and security of our whole country; and also advance in an eminent degree the cause of humanity, by its tendency to check the progress of the slave trade; and the t the proposition of the President to obtain the possession of that Island by a fair purchase from the government of Spain, was a manly and upright step towards the attainment of so desirable an object; an object which has received the sanction and approval of Jefferson, Madison, J. Q. Adams and Clay, as well as of eminent living states-

Resolved. That across the Central American Isthmus lies the great highway to our Pacific States, and that we have witnessed, with pleasure and pride, the carnest efforts of the president to keen them open and make them safe; in which view he should be seconded by Congress with the necessary powers to enable him to insist upon the fulfilment, by the States possessing those territories, of the treaty guarantees which they have givon to our citizens.

Resolved. That this Convention highly approve the course of the Hon. William Big in Congress from this State, and desire to record their sense of the ability, consistency, patriotism and sound national Democracy which have distinguished his public acts as one of the representutives of Pennsylvania.

Resolved. That the doctrine of popular sover eignty, which recognizes the right of the people of the Territories baving a sufficient population to organize their State governments under a Constitution with or without slavery as they may sev erally determine, subject only to the Constitution of the United States, and without any control of ony department of the Federal government over that subject, meets with our renewed and unanimous approbation and support.

Resolved. That the prosperity of our State can be better and more securely promoted by encouraging the competition of individual capital, skill and industry than by any grant of corporate privileges and powers to gigantic monopolies.

Resolved, That we are in favor of an honest and economical administration of the affairs of ceeded to read over the list of counties this Commonwealth, and until the people are relieved from the hurden of the enormous debt now hanging over them, we are opposed to any unnecessary expenditure of the public money, or any reduction of the present sources of revenue.

Resolved. That in view of the difficulties at tendant upon the regulation of a banking system and of the losses incidental to a deposit of the public moneys in such institutions, the early adoption of an independent Treasury for the safe keep ing of the moneys of the Commonwealth, on the principle of the sub-treasury of the United States, recommended to the Legislature of the State.

The resolutions were read separately and adopted unanimously. Mr. Lamberton offered the following in addi-

Resolved, That we approve the State policy of Governor Wm. F. Packer. His just exercise of the voto power has been fearless and Democratic and his administration of the affairs of our Comm on wealth and the execution of the laws, com-

Mr. Lamberton advocated its passage and deprecated the ignoring of the Democratic Executive of the State by the report of the Committee. The resolution was confined to Governor Packer's State policy, and did not touch his action in regard to Lecompton and the National Administration.

Speaking by authority, he denied any participation by the Governor's organ at Harrisburg, reflecting upon the National Government. If this supposed participation had to any extent influenced unhappy in some of his appointments majority. and in the selection of friends; he would not defend the conduct of the Attorney General, Mr. Knox, and others. But in order to harmonize the Lecompton issue has been made against the State Administration, he urged, on grounds of policy, to the Democratic party, the passage of his resolution. Mr. Monaghan said he had a very sad the plea was absurd, for the Governor Mr. Hopkins moved that the Conven- and painful duty to perform. had said that a thing had been made of the purchase of the canals, and that within three weeks they had been offered an advance of $227,000. His doctrine was to rebuke evil wherever it was seen. What would have been the effect of a rebuke of David Wilmot years ago, when he violated the usages of the Democratic party? Why districts, which now were opposition, would have retained their allegiance. The same the case in the Chester and Delaware District, when he had opposed the nomination of Hickman, in 1854 and '56, who, after his election, became a traitor to the Democratic party. Had the Democratic party repudiated him in 1856, he would have failed in 1858 in drawing after him a large number of the Democratic votes.

More votes would be lost by advocating Gov. Packer than by keeping quiet. Already the were reasons to believe that he would be nominated by the opposition for United States Senator, while

Judge Knox would run for Governor. He was in favor of compromise on the question of endorsing Governor Pucker. He came here ready to denounce him. Now he would compromise by saying nothing about him. Let the friends of that gentleman do the

The resolution did not endorse the Governor in his personal preferences, such as John C. Knox. The gentleman from Chester need not tell him anything about the Attorney General -Knox came from his county, and when poor and helpless and nearly starving, the Democracy of Jefferson county took him by the hand and made him Judge. He showed now his ingratitude and true character. True, Governor Packer has much discretion in the selection of his officers and friends. But the resolution of the folland for Window Shades. Call and examine.

Waltz & Rædel have a beautiful article of Buff Holland for Window Shades. Call and examine merely spoke in laudation of his enforcement of the laws. He supported the resolution as eminently politic, and essential to the success of the Democratic party in 1860. Mr. Hopkins, as one who had for thirty years been an observer of political parties, would offer a few suggestions. Though he could not but admit that the discretion of the Governor has not proven good in regard to his appointments and some other matters, still he favored conciliatory measures, such as were calculated to produce harmony in the Democratic party. Schisms had already produced woeful results, and the past taught a useful lesson for the future.

Mr. Gillis did not suppose that furth. er discussion would give much information. Three speakers have spoken for and one against the resolution. He thought it best to let the Convention decide now, and therefore called the previous question.

Mr. Johnson asked that the call should be withdrawn.

Mr. Gillis declined to withdraw except on condition that Mr. Johnson should not occupy the Convention for more than ten minutes.

Mr. Johnson, accepting this, made some remarks. He deprecated the conciliatory policy, and said that it had been advocated in 1854, in his own county, when the Democratic party was the Committee to ignore the Governor, at a low ebb. He had repudiated it, this was now done away with. He and the next election gave the regular would admit that the Governor has been Democratic Nominees twelve hundred
