Wit and Humor.

THE WAY THE MONEY GOES.

We yesterday saw a cradle costing four hundred dollars. The article was made of papier mache, inlaid with pearl, and got up with a degree of elaborateness exceeding any thing of the kind that ever was presented to our observation. The article is for sale, though whether it will be advertised or not remains to be seen. That four hundred dollar cradle, we take it, will play the mischief in its way. A rush will be created to see it, and every mother in the crowd will desire just such a cradle for her boy, "William Augustus Fitz Clarence." In a good many instances, "William Augustus Fitz Clarence," will be gratified. Ma will get the cradle aforesaid: Pa will pay for it. In about six months afterwards Pa will discover that his cash account runs short. To cure "shorts" Pa will try his hand at a little forgery, and draw a sixty day's note on his friend Sparkle, who gives "those splendid suppers." Just before note comes due, Sparkle sees document and pronounces it a forgery.—Sparkle calls on Pa and asks "what it all means?" Pa says he will explain it in the morning. Morning comes, and Pa doesn't come down to breakfast.—Ma says, "that's queer; Cherubina, go up and see what Pa is doing." Cherubina obeys orders and finds what Pa is doing, hanging to a bed cord from a garret rafter. Cherubina rushes down stairs and tells Ma. Ma faints; falls and kills poodle. The servants take the alarm, cry fire, and throw parlor mirrors into the back yard. Noise alarms policemen. Policemen rush in, and after applying burnt feathers to Ma's nose, rush up stairs, and cut down Pa with a jack knife containing two broken blades. The Coroner comes and sits on Pa. Verdict "Death from Hemp."—Funeral next day Ma so much smothered in black crape, that she might pass for a thunder cloud, especially when she weeps. Pa is carried to Laurel Hill and "run into the ground." Ma becomes "broken hearted," and opens a boarding house, for the sale of two marriageable daughters. Ma drags out a miserable existance and declares herself the "victim of inexorable fate."

In all this Ma makes an immense mistake. Instead of being the victim of fate, she is the victim of a four hundred dollar cradle. Other Ma's see this, and yet they follow in the same direction, and end their career in the same manner. Fools will not learn wisdom from the misfortunes of others. One half our bankruptcies are caused by four hundred dollar cradles, and similar gim-cracks, bought by empty headed women to excite envy in the bosoms of a score or two of empty headed acquaintances.

TAKE NOTICE.

The old stone worm is come to life again.

JOHN PETER MOYER would respectfully inform the public that he has continued the business of LIMESTONE SAWING AND DRESSING by horse power, in Chestnut Street, East Lebanon. He finishes the following articles out of the best and soundest limestone that can be procured in this neighborhood, viz:—DOOR SILLS and PLATFORMS, STEPS, WINDOW SILLS and HEADS, CELLAR DOOR CURBES, CURB-STONES, Shoe Scraper blocks, as well as any other article that can be manufactured of limestone. His Curb-stones are from four to five inches thick; and his prices in accordance with the quality.

He was the first person that introduced the lime-stone into this place, and is now prepared to finish of lime-stone so as to give it an appearance very little inferior to that of the handsomest Marble, in proof of which assertion he directs the public to the finished work at his establishment. He respectfully invites all those who intend erecting new buildings, to call at his establishment and convince themselves of the excellent finish of his work as also of the cheapness of his prices.

JAMES F. MAXWELL,
MANUFACTURER OF
Improved Fire and Water Proof
COMPOSITION ROOFING,

HARRISBURG, PA.,

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Harrisburg, Reading, Lancaster, Lebanon, and their vicinities, that we are prepared to put on roofs on most liberal terms, and at the shortest notice.

We respectfully call the attention of persons about to build, to our invaluable method of roofing, now much used throughout the principal cities of the United States and their vicinities. This mode of roofing having all the combined requisites of Cheapness, Durability, and Security against Fire and Water, and dispensing with high gable walls; the roofs require an inclination of not more than three-quarters (¾) of an inch to the foot, and in many cases saving the entire cost of rafters—the ceiling only being used.

The gutters are made of the same material, without any extra charges; consequently, our roofs are put up at almost half the cost of either Tin, Slate, or Shingles. The material being of imperishable nature, it surpasses all others in Durability;—besides, in case of any casualty, it is the most easily repaired of any other roof now in use. Yet, the best proof we can offer as to its being both fire and water proof, are our many references, to any one of whom we are at liberty to refer.

N. B.—But let it be distinctly understood, (since we manufacture our own composition, and do the work in person,) that we warrant all our work proof against both Fire and Water: if they prove contrary, we will most willingly abide the results.

The materials being mostly non-conductors of heat, no roof is so cool in summer, or so warm in winter. Those wishing to use our roof should give the rafters a pitch of about one inch to the foot.

☞Great Discovery of the Age.☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS

Dr. Gustav Linnard's Taste Restorative Troches, the Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe Mental and Physical Disorders to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain insects and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system; manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw of the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per box. A liberal discount to the trade. Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.
