WHAT ARE WOMAN'S RIGHTS?"-The following definition of "Womans Rights" is the best we have yet seen. We regret our ignorance of the author. Her name should be known:

The right to wake when others sleep; The right to watch, the right to weep; The right to comfort in distress, The right to soothe, she right to bless; Ube right the widow's heart to cheer,
The right to dry an orphan's tear: The right to feed and clothe the poor, The right to teach them to endure;

The right, when other friends have flown, And left the sufferer all alone, To knee! that dying couch beside, And meekly point to Him who died; The right a happy home to make, In any clime for Jesus' sake: Rights such as these are all we crave,

Until our last—a quiet grave. GRACEFUL AND WITTY.—When the celebrated Joseph Lancaster was in Washington, he delivered a lecture in the House of Representatives, from the Speaker's chair. Mr. Clay. then Speaks or, complimented him by saying that the chair had never been filed so well. Mr. Lancaster modestly replied, that "Man in his best estates was the states when the speaker's was the speaker Man of very little account; that the Speaker's chair had hever been filled with any thing better Experience has rendered Dr. K. a most successful practitioner in the cure of all diseases of a private nature, manhood's debility. as an impediment to marriage; nervous and sexual infirmities, diseases of the skin, and those arising from abuse of mercury.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in differential them to manhood is series of series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable sensations, and vague fears in the mind. [See pages, 27, 28, 29, of Dr. K.'s book on "Self-Preservation."]
