The Magnitude of the Public Works of the United States.

It has been fashionable to compare unfavora-bly the works of this country with those of Europe. To such an extent has this been carried that it is not unfrequently said that we have to look to England or the Continent for most of our look to England er the Continent for most of our examples. We are continually told by travelers of the great extent, beauty and durability of the continental works, and of the enormous strength of the English structures. Now it is perfectly true that Europe can beast of railroads, canals, bridges, and aqueducts unrivaled in the world for beauty and excellence of workmanship and design but it is countly true that America. and design, but it is equally true that America can point toworks of utility that, in the magnificence of their proportions, are not exceeded any-

The Julian Aqueduct of Rome is two miles longer than the Croton Aqueduct of New-York, built by John B. Jervis and Horatio Allen, but the Croton carries more water then all the seven aqueducts of Rome put together, and more than any other aqueduct in the world, and is longer than any other excepting the Julian.
The Illinois Central Railroad, built by Col.

portion than the arch over the Oca, so long cele-prated for its magnificence.

The tunnel built by Mr. Haupt, on the summit of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was a more difficult work than the tounci under the Thames. The structures on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail-road at Manper's Ferry, and beyond the summit, built by Latrobe, and the Starrocca Viaduct, on the New York and Eric Railroad, built by Julius Adams, are equal in magnifycence and excellence of workmanship to anything Brunel ever did in England or Moran in France.

England or Moran in France.

The Suspension Bridge over the Niagara river at Lewistown, built by Major Serrel, is 1,042 feet 10 inches in one span, and is 43 feet greater than any other span in the world, being nearly twice as great and quite as strong as Telford's celebrated bridge over the Menai Straits in England.

The United States Day deals of Parables in the The United States Dry-dock at Brooklyn is the largest dry-dock in the world by many feet. The workmanship, done under the direction of Mr. McAlphine and General Straut, is equal, if not superior, to anything of the kind anywhere.—The plates of iron used in the gates of this dock are the largest that had ever been made up to the time they were rolled.

The flight of combined locks on the Bric Canal at Lockport, built by the State Engineers, are equaled only in one other place in Christendom.

(Sweden.)
The Railroad Suspension Bridge built by Roebling over the Niagara is within a few feet of twice style, and would solicit all to give him a trial. span of Stephenson's great Tubular Bridge in England, the largest structure of the kind. It is 850 feet in one span, and two stories high, the railroad being above the public highway. Nothing like this exists anywhere else.

The Light-bouse on Minot's Ledge, being built by Capt. Alexander, is in a more exposed situa-tion, and as far as proceeded with is more secure-ty bolted together than the famous Eddystone Lighthouse in England.

The Bridge at Wheeling, built by Charles Ellet, is exceeded only in span by the Lowistown Bridge, and is heavier than it; it is the second Eargest span in the world, and is much more beauful than the Fribourg Bridge, its European rival In than the Fribourg Bridge, its European rival In carpentry we are unexcelled in the world, such structures in timber as the Dry Docks at San Francisco and Philadelphia—McCullam's and Col. Seymour's bridges on the Eric Railroad and branches, the timber viaducts on the Catawissa Railroad, built by Stancieff, Col. Long's bridges on the various New England railroads, and How's trustes at Harrisburg, have not their equals across the Atlastic.

Then, again, in Europe many structures are built that might have been avoided,—a few hundred rods of detern would have saved the great Box tunnel. Now we maintain that the location of kidell's division, for example, on the Erie, evinced more skill in avoiding the necessity of great structures than could be shown in building tham them.

The stones on either corner of the Exchange in Boston, built by Rodgers, are larger than any single stone in Cleopatra's needle, and those now being put into the United States Treasury at Washington are much heavier than any stone of Pompey's pillar, or the Pyramids of Egypt.

As to the difficulties of location, there is no country where more science and skill have been brought to bear than in ours, and it is a remarka-ble fact that, in point of time, last year our average traveling was faster by two and a half miles per hour than in England, comparing our princi-pal lines with theirs, while the charges on the American lines was but little over half the Eng.

The reason why these things are not generally known is, that here we build a great work, announce its completion in the same advertisement that heralds the opening of the road, and no more is said about it, except, perhaps, what may ap-pear in one or two scientific periodicals, where dry feet and inches, stress, strain and tortion are discussed, and are never read except by the profes-sional engineer. While on the contrary, in Eng-tand and France, as soon as a great work is built, and while it is being erected, pictures by thou-sands are published, medals are struck and circunewspapers show it in every stage of progress and from every point of view; the engineer is knight-ed, if he is not already of the nobility, and the fame of the structure is sent from land to land; while with us, as we have shown, may be found some of the most gigantic works ever undertaken, that are passed by and ever without hardly any notice. It is remarkable that the best popular descriptions of currown public works of great magnitude are to be found in the journals of France and Germany. AMERICUS.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS'

Experience has rendered Dr. K. a most successful practitioner in the cure of all diseases of a private nature, manhood's debility, as an impediment to marriage; nervous and sexual infirmities, diseases of the skin, and those arising from abuse of mercury.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating inflections.

Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable sensations, and vague fears in the mind. [See pages, 27, 28, 29, of Dr. K.'s book on "Self-Preservation."]

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak; he is dull, irresolute, and engages even in his sports with less energy than usual.

If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considerations which should awaken the attention of all who are similarly situated.

The author of this work, unlike the majority of those who advertise to cure the diseases of which it treats, is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United States. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victim of mal-practice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may alone the irrepreted considerate.

the victim of mat-pincies, as a stacessym and experience of practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

JOSEPH S. TONGSMORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University, Philadelphia.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Anthor of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient his been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by Self-almse, or Excess of venery, I do not know his superior in his profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one, in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.
