WHEN DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES LEAD, WE CARE TO FOLLOW. WM. M. BRESLIN, Editor and Proprietor. LEBANON, PA. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 1859.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: Richard L. Wright, of Philadelphia.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: John Rowe, of Franklin County.

The Philadelphians have a new Hotel at the corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets, but they know not what to call it. The whole city is exercised to find out a proper name.

A young lady named Miss Mary Queen, aged 18 years, residing with her parents in Harrisburg, was poisoned last week, by taking a prescription, which was filled at one of the Harrisburg Drug Stores.

The Massachusetts amendment to the constitution disfranchising adopted citizens resident in the state for two years after naturalization, is creating much contention between the two divisions of the Opposition party.

Late foreign news note the passage of the river Sosa by the Sardinians and the capture of Palastro. Also the rumored repulse of Ghibaldi in Lombardy.

The notes of the Central Bank of Hollidaysburg are again in bad repute. The papers of that place contend that the bank is perfectly safe.

The Republican Germans out West are rebellious, on account of the recent action of their party in Massachusetts, in adopting the two years' amendment to the constitution.

If a German Republican takes the most powerful magnifying glass in the world he will be unable to find anything in the proceedings of the late Republican Convention at Harrisburg, showing that they do not approve of the amendment.

The eighth resolution, favorable to squandering the public lands in Homesteads of 160 acres each, is a telling commentary upon the sixth resolution.

The ninth expresses their genuine sentiments, that they are opposed to the introduction of foreign criminals into this country.

The tenth extends a general invitation to all men to join, and restore the government to its original purity.

The eleventh endorses the course of Gen. Cameron and the Republican members of Congress. Such, then, is the platform of a pre-tended great party.

Mr. J. Smart, of St. Paul, Minn., was recently prosecuted by a young widow for breach of promise.

In the conception of Mahomet's paradise, there is no distinction between a perfect woman and an angel.

THE OPPOSITION STATE CONVENTION.

An Opposition State Convention was held in Harrisburg last week. Thomas E. Cochran, of York county, was nominated for Auditor General on the eighth ballot.

The platform patched up by the Convention is generally considered the most absurd ever enacted by any body of the kind.

Their first resolution contains a falsehood, and slanders the Chief Magistrate of the nation. A body of men claiming to be respectable should be ashamed to be guilty of either.

The indignation about the revival of the slave trade is all gammon. The Democratic party is just as much, if not more so, opposed thereto, as the Republican dare be.

The sixth resolution accuses the National Administration of extravagance. When we remember that retrenchment and reform has always been the cry of the opposition out of power,

The seventh resolution, favorable to squandering the public lands in Homesteads of 160 acres each, is a telling commentary upon the sixth resolution.

The eighth relative to the purity and safety of the ballot-box is sensible, and if their friends in Baltimore, lately, and formerly in Young Woman's town and other places, in this State, will profit thereby, we are sure the Democrats will not interfere in the contemplated reforms.

The eleventh endorses the course of Gen. Cameron and the Republican members of Congress. Such, then, is the platform of a pre-tended great party.

BATTLE OF MONTEBELLO.

THE BATTLE OF MONTEBELLO IN JUNE, 1800.

It is interesting to mark the similarity, between the opening of the Italian campaign by Napoleon in 1800, and by Louis Napoleon in 1859.

COUNTERFEIT POSTAGE STAMPS.

It is said that, from recent investigations into the affairs of the Post Office, the Department believes that the government loses one million of dollars annually by the use of counterfeit and re-washed postage stamps.

CANNIBALISM ON THE PLAINS.

An old man who stopped at the New England Hotel last night, told a frightful story of cannibalism on the Plains, between Pike's Peak and the city which is located in the foot of the so-called Golden Region.
