MIKE ROLLS DOWN HIS TROW. SERS AND SLAMS TO THE DOOR.—For the amusement of the boys who 'run with the machine.' we give the following racy sketch from the Philadelphia North American:

As everybody knows who has watch-ed matters and things connected with the fire department, a certain class of firemen are devotedly wedded to the practice of rolling the bottoms. of their trowsers above the tops of their boots. This is particularly the case with some of the companies down town, whose members, excepting on the most radical fire companies of this city is located in the vicinity of Southwark.
