DISCOVERY OF A DEAD BORY .- Last evening, about 7 o'clock, the dead body of a man was found House" Hotel, in this city. made accidentally, by some ladies, who were desirous of going up into the Observatory, but were prevented by finding the door locked. This being unusual, it excited inquiry, and the result was the finding of the body. It was that of a man the finding of the body. It was that of a man the feet 2 inches high, about 35 years of age, with rather fall face, and sandy whickers. He were dark pants, a light linea cout, glazed cap, and shoes well worn. Nothing was found upon the body, to lead to his identification. A Coron-ur's inquest was im nediately summoned, and a verdiet rendered of death from causes unknown No one about the house saw him ascend into the he got there; except that from the fact that the body was already advanced in decomposition, it must have lain there at least forty-eight hours,— ed upon his stomach, as though death had been painful. Some persons who saw the body, suppose it to be that of a strolling professor of Phrenology, who was wandering about town in the early part of the week: and represented himself as a soldier of the Mexican War, and a Printer by trade. He also said his name was Matthews, and that he was a native of Union county, in this State. The body was given in charge of an Undertaker, and was interred on Saturday, in the Alms House Ceme-tery.—Reading Gazette.

The person whose death is noticed above, has been about Lebanon for several months past. His habits were very irregular, and the probabilities are that he died of mania-a-potu. He could have been in Reading but a few days before his death.

Dreadful Accident from Burning Fluid.

Mr. NEBO, Lebanon county, June 22, 1859. MR. BRESLIN -A serious accident, occasioned by the use of Fluid, occurred in this place yesterday. Mr. Michael Horning, merchant of Mt. Nebo, was in the act of lighting his lamp in the store, when, from some unaccountable cause, an explosion took place. His clothing was set on fire, and in a moment he was caveloped in a blaze. He ran to and fro for assistance, and eventually to the garden where he extinguished the fire by rolling himself in a flower bed. His person is burned dreadfully, and his situation is precuri-

Another gentleman, by the name of J. Eckert. was standing some few feet off at the time of the acoident. The fluid came upon him likewise, and speedily he was also in a blaze. By the timely arrival of neighbors the fire on Mr. Eckert was extinguished before it had made much headway; nevertheless his person was burnt and blistered to such an extent as to confine him to his bed.

The store was also wrapped in a blaze, and but for the timely assistance of the neighbors would have been destroyed. Some of my neighbors saw the burning men half a mile off, having the appearance of two bundles of straw in a blaze moving about at a very rapid rate.

P. S.—The spectator of the proceeding of all he Lutheran Synods North and South, does not fail to remark one fact, which happily distinguishes them from the ecclesi stical assemblages f nearly every other denomination in this coun try. It is the rigid and spontaneous exclusion 'everlasting" slavery question. Our Latherans are too practical, common sense people to suffer themselves, by any visionary schemes of "philanthropy," to be moved from their propri-ly reduced, and there are a large number of others, especially in the western states, that might be served the same way, without detriment to the public. The department is not acquainted with the necessities of the public for all the mail facilities we now have in this county, and will no doubt do us justice upon learning the facts.

The South-ward English Lutheran congregation of Danville, a newly organized charge, was received into connection with this body, and Samuel Galicks, Jr., admitted as delegate. The brothers then, it is said, struck each other, the borys round cheering them on. Charles the youngest, then stepped back about six feet, and drawing a small penknife, held it between two of his fingers and hurled it at his brother's breast. The blade penetrated the clothes, and entered between the sixth and seventh ribs. The wounded boy fell back, and was immediately carried to his mother's rooms. It was not thought at first that there was anything the matter with him, but when it was found that he was unable to speak, Dr. Gilhe was found that he was unable to speak, Dr. Gil-fillan was sent for, and on arriving saw that the boy was dying. The knife had penetrated but about the eighth of an inch, but it struck an ar-tery, it is supposed, and caused internal homorrhage. The poor boy died in fifteen minutes affer the affray. Those of the medical fraternity who rhage. The poor the medical fraternity who the affray. Those of the medical fraternity who were called in, pronounce it a most singular case. The infant murderer was not arrested. Considerable excitement prevailed about the matter.—
