OLD BLIZZARD'S RAILROAD SPECULA. TION .-- Every body about Montgomery, Alabama, knows old Blizzard of Pike county. He is one of your one ox or one bag men. Old Blizzard is stiff in the world. He works his fifteen hands, and makes his seven bags to the hand. He made it all by his own exertions too. When the Railroad (the Mobile and Girard road) was first talked of in his settlement, Old Blizzard was high up for it. The line of the road would come near his plantation, and dispense with the wear and tear of his wagons through the prairies to Montgomery. One day an agent of the railroad company called upon him, took dinner with him, and talked railroad to him. As the agent was about leaving, he drew his subscription book and said :--

"Well, Mr. Blizzard, what amount shall I put down as your subscription to our great enterprise?"

'Wall,' said Mr. B., "I've just thirteen hundred rails, new and good rails split out, and by the time you folks'll want 'em I'll have as many more. You may put me down for three thousand rails any how.'

"We do not want the rails, Mr. Blizzard," said the agent smiling, "we wish our friends to purchase, or rather to help us furnish IRON rails. What amount of MONEY will you give to help get iron rails !

"Iron rails be durned. Ef your going inter such nnnaterel-like extravagances as that, I shant gin yer a dollar. IBON rails! Well for sure, who ever heard of the like?" And so old Bliz. zard left the railroad agent in disgust, numbling to himself ashe went away .---"Iron rails be durned."

THE "MAD STONE."-A Mr. Mallory and a Mr. Ward, of Marshall county, Hl. were recently bitten by a mad dog .-They determined to try the virtues of the "mad-stone." Mr. Mallory gives the following account of the operation: He found the "mad-stone" in the possession of Mr. J. P. Evans, in Lincoln, Logan county, and describes it as a small flesh-colored stone, about two inches broad, half an inch thick, and very porous. The stone was first placed in warm water for an hour, and applied to the flesh wound, when it adhered firmly for several hours, all the time apparently drawing with a strong suction the blood from all parts of the body. After re-maining on several hours, the stone, as it became charged with the poison, became of milky whiteness, as also did the flesh immediately about the wound, when all at once, it fell off, and being placed in warm milk emitted a strong, offensive odor, and gradually discharged its contents into the milk, and assumed its natural color again. It was then applied with the same results several times, Philadelphia, Pottsville, Tamaqua, Danvillo, Williams until finally it would adhere no longer, and the patient was declared cured.

EXTRACT OF WORDS .- The following anecdote is related of an Eastern Monarch, and is exceedingly suggestive:

Avoiding THE RESPONSIBILITY .--Brother Noel was "sore troubled" at the scandal Brother Crump bought upon himself by drinking too much, and especially regretted the injury it brought to society at Sharon. So one morning he stepped over to Brother Crump's and found the old man in a doze in the lit. tle porch.

"Won't you take a dram?" asked Brother Crump, as soon as he was made aware of the presence of his neighbor. "Why, yes; I'm not agin a dram when a body wants it."

Brother Crump got his bottle, and the friends took a dram a piece. "Don't you think, Brother Noel," sáid Crump, 'that sperits is a blessin ?"

"Yes," replied Noel, "sperits is a blessin that some of us abuses." "Well, now, Brother Noel, who do you think now, Brother Noel, who do you think abuses the blessin?" "Well, it is hard to say — but people talk — don't you think that you drink a little too much, Broth-er Crump?" "It is hard to say," return. d Crump. "Sometimes I've thought 4 was a drinkin' too much, and then agin I'd think may be not. What is man? — Kata a final f I'd think may be not. What is man ?-A weak worrum of the dust! So I left it to the Lord to say whether I was a goin' too far in sperits. I put the whole sponsibility on him; I prayed ef I was drinkin' too much for him to take away my appetite for sperits. I've prayed that prayer three times, and he hain't done it. So I'm clear of the 'sponsibil. ity, any way."

OF The widow of Gen. John H. Eaton, General Jackson's Secretary of War, was married last week in Washington, to a dancing master named Signor Antonio Buckignani. At the time of her marriage with Gen. Eaton, she was the young widow of Purser Timberlake of the Navy, and as her fame was somewhat stained by calumnious reports, she was not received into society, a mark of contempt which annoyed the President, and which he resented by insisting that she should be received, but the result of this measure was a rupture in Old Hickory's Cabinet. Two years ago Gen. Eaton died, leaving his wife a handsome property, and as was generally believed the deceased, in severing the bond that uni ted him to her, perpetrated a most sensible act. The bride has attained the ripe age of sixty, while her happy lord is only twenty-two, a disparity of years which he will doubtless find will be greatly in his favor.
