The English journals continue to ridicule the terms of peace. The Post (London) says that the English journals continue to ridicule the terms of peace.

The Paris correspondent of the News says, there is a feeling of disappointment and even of indignation among all who took a sincere interest in the object of the war.

The announcement of peace is said to have caused signs of committal improvement in France. The Paris correspondent of the London Herald says, the greatest activity prevailed all along the French coast.

The budget of the Chancellor of the British Exchequer (Mr. Gladstone) has been presented to Parliament. Its figures show a deficiency of five millions sterling.

The Provisional Government of Tuscany had issued a proclamation describing the fairest hopes that the Tuscan Government participated in and were the sentiments of the people, and declaring that Tuscany will not be replaced under the yoke and influence of Austria, against her will and rights.

The most important towns of the Roman States had sent deputations to confer with Garibaldi in regard to the condition of affairs. Modena and Parma are said to be in a state of revolt.

The Paris correspondent of the Post says, it has never been intended to support, by the French army, the return of the Grand Duke of Tuscany. It was reported that Sardinia has recalled its representatives from Tuscany and Modena, and that the Provisional governments of Tuscany and Modena are organizing a force to oppose the return of the Dukes.

The Times correspondent says, that the news of the peace produced the greatest exasperation and defection at Turin. The Emperor was accused of being a traitor to Italy; his portraits had to be withdrawn from view in the shop windows, to prevent them from being broken.

The Kentucky Election took place on Monday, August 1. B. Magoffin was the Democratic candidate for Governor, and Linn Boyd for Lieutenant Governor. The opposition candidates for these offices were Joshua F. Bell and Alfred Allen.

Monday, August 1, was the Anniversary of the Emancipation of the Slaves in the English West Indies. The colored population of Pennsylvania had a variety of demonstrations commemorative of the event.

An crazy man named Colton, amused himself one day last week, by running through the streets of Philadelphia and stabbing with a pair of shears every one that came in his way. Before he was knocked down and arrested, he stabbed four or five persons, one of whom is supposed to be fatally injured.

LATE FROM EUROPE. FARTHER POINT, July 29. The steanship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool on the 20th inst., passed this point to-day, bound up for Quebec.

The Queen of Portugal is dead. The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says the representatives of Austria, France and Sardinia, will soon meet at Zurich to conclude the treaty of peace.

Letter from the President Declining a Re-nomination. PITTSBURGH, July 30.—The following letter from the President, was received this morning, by Hon. Wilson McCandless:

My DEAR SIR—I have received your kind note of the 29th inst., with the letter from the Post. While I appreciate, as it deserves, the ability and friendship displayed in the editorial, I yet regret that it has been published. My determination, not under any circumstances to become a candidate for re-election, is final and conclusive.

The distinguishing and venerable Richard Rush, died at Philadelphia, on Saturday morning in the 79th year of his age. He was Attorney General of the United States, Secretary of the Treasury, Minister to England, and under President Polk, Minister to France.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE, LANCASTER.—The annual commencement of this institution, took place on the 27th ult. in Fulton Hall, Lancaster City. The graduating class numbered twenty-one, being greater than in any preceding occasion since the union of Marshall with Franklin College.

The Biennial Address before the Literary Societies of the "Finitation" was delivered, on the evening of the 26th, by Gen. WM. A. STOKES, of Westmoreland, in the presence of the largest audience that ever assembled in the Hall. The Lancaster Express, in speaking of it, says:

"Much was expected of him in his address on 'Tom Paine, the Purchaser Patriot,' both from the reputation of the speaker and the intrinsic interest of the subject—nor were the large and intelligent audience disappointed in all concerning it.

A WONDERFUL CURE: Dr. Hill, a notable wit, physician, and a man of letters, having quarrelled with the members of the Royal Society of London, who had refused to admit him as an associate, resolved to avenger himself upon them in a novel manner.

SATAN'S MARKS IN THE SWINE.—A few days since, on going into my back yard, I saw a freshly killed pig had just been hung up, a man, who I knew was curious in such matters said, "There, now, there's the mark as Satan made in the herd of swine before they ran down the cliffs into the sea."

A LADY and gentleman in this vicinity, says the New Haven News, chancing to be bathing in a natural, but unscanned by each other, being separated by a ledge of rocks, a mischievous boy exchanged one pile of clothing for the other. Their perplexity and embarrassment on emerging from the water, may better be imagined than described; but seeing no other alternative, the lady donned the male and the gentleman the female apparel, hoops and "everything," and made their way to their homes in that guise.

AN AUSTRIAN DETACHMENT TAKEN PRISONERS BY A RAILWAY ENGINEER.—Among the many lighter passages of the war with which the Parisians amuse themselves, we find in the Sport the story of the capture of a detachment of Austrians who were taken prisoners by the engineer of the railway. It appears that the Austrians were en route for Poschiera to reinforce General Urban, when the engineer, whose sympathies were naturally on the Italian side, "switched off," and conveyed the Teutonic heroes into the middle of the allied camp. Here they were politely escorted from the railway carriage, by the French soldiers, who, with that amiable politeness for which the nation is distinguished, saluted their enemies with "Ah those who are going to France will please change cars."

The last Legislature of Texas, it is said, contained three "men of mark." Not one of them could write his name.

A man named George Fitzpatrick, died in this city, says the Lynn (Mass.) Reporter, on Sunday evening of consumption. We are informed that for the last twenty-nine days of his existence, he partook of no food of any description, except one or two strawberries. This is one of the most extraordinary instances of human endurance that has ever come to our knowledge, and we are assured the fact is precisely as we have stated it. He was a reduced at the time of his death, that his leg could be spanned at any part by the thumb and forefinger.

M. Haumann, a celebrated violinist in Paris, well-known throughout Europe, quarrelled with his mother-in-law, and she quarrelled with him, and the result was, that she sold the portrait of her son-in-law—a beautiful picture by a first-rate artist, with which he had presented her in happier days—sold it for 20 francs, and had painted on the frame "Haumann, the fiddler." The insulted violinist, sued his mother-in-law for damages, but failed to get them.

THE PHILADELPHIA MARKET. Flour—There is very little demand for flour, but holders, if anything, are firmer in their views, and standard superfine, made from new wheat, is selling at $2 60 per bushel. The latter for good straight brands, without finding buyers to any extent. Old stock continues dull and neglected, and we quote it nominally at $5 to $6 per bushel.

GRAIN.—There is not much wheat offering, and holders are asking a high price for the same. The demand, however, is limited, and only about 2000 bushels, mostly New Southern, found buyers in lots from $1 12 to $1 25 for inferior to good red, and $1 30 to $1 40 for the best. Corn is unchanged, and about 2000 bushels yellow sold, chiefly at $6 for prime Southern white. Oats are quiet, and are selling at $1 25 for the best.

CATTLE MARKET.—The offerings of Beef cattle at the different yards were about 1200 head, during the past week; but, the latter for rather dull, but prices are without much quotation change, ranging from $7 to $10 for 100 lbs. net, including some taken at $5 to $4 for 100 lbs. net. About 100 Cows and Calves were at market; selling at from $40 to $50 for good to prime milk cows; $25 to $35 for second quality cows, and $15 to $20 for dry cows.
