A CANDIDATE USED UP. Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President of the United the prize were never of the very best, and a letter recently written by him the next best thing he could now do would be to return to the party from whence he originally came. Said letten confidentially, but by some means was smoked out, and first appeared in the New York Herald of the 4th inst. It was at first pronounced a forgery, but much to the chagrin of Governor Wise's friends, the Governor himself follows up the matter and acknowledges the letter to be genuine .-

It will be seen that the letter is a regular pot-house epistle, and the more disgraceful as it emanates from a man who had serious aspirations for the highest office in the gift of the peoplo, and a large and powerful body of men to support his pretensions. He not only calculates upon divisions in the Democratic party, but deliberately advises disorganization to advance his own selfish ends. Political honor is entirely disregarded by him, and to "rule or to ruin" is made the plan this letter is made public. It brings its labors. to light one of the secrets of the dihave heretofore been dashed to pieready apparent. They see the catspaws they are made of for the bene-

"The Rev. Mr. Cleghorn, of Cower's Ferry, Cedar county, had one of his sons bitten by a und dog on the 2d inst, and also the horse upon which the boy was riding at the time. Having seen the account which was published a few days ago of the "mad stone" in the possession of Mr. Evans, of Paris in this security he impublished a target of Paris, in this county, he immediately started thither with his boy and horse. The stone was soaked in warm milk and water, and then applied to the wound. It adhered with great tenacity -so much us to cause intense pain for a few min-tes. After a short time it seemed to fill itself utes. After a short time it seemed to fill itself and dropped off. After being submerged in the milk and water again—during which a green, offensive seum would arise from the stone—it was fourth from the would not again applied. After the frurth time it would not adhere any more, and Mr. Evans pronounced him cured. It was then applied to the wound on the horse, to which it adhered three times only. To make sure of the matter, however, Mr. C. remainder the right. d over night, and tried it again in the morning, but it would have no effect on either the boy or the borse. It seems to be a fact well attested that this stone will not adhere to any wound not made by a rabid animal, and if so, must confound the wisdom of the most philosophical."

discussed by the Convention:

1. We recognize as Spiritualists all who profess to believe in spiritual demonstations. We call ourselves Spiritualists, and consider ourselves distinct from those who do not recognize a certain quality of truth, and who may be properly called Spiritists.

2. What is Spiritualism? We define the term as the true up-building of man's highest spiritual at welfare and destiny.

3. We believe that Spiritualism should not be confounded with the harmonial philosophy of Andrew Jackson Davis, the deiems of Dr. Hare, nor the individual theories of any other writer, whether prominent among Spiritualists or not; nor even with teachings of disembodied spirits themselves.

4. The relation of Spiritualism and was a meanure, and was a meanure, and was a meanure places. Situate in South Lebanon and 3 from Schiefferstown. The should be deading between the two named places.
