WHEN DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES CEASE TO LEAD, WE CEASE TO FOLLOW." -----WM. M. BRESLIN, Editor and Proprietor.

LEBANON, PA.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1859.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY. (Subject to the Decision of the Charle National Convention.) DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL : Richardson L. Wright OF PHILADELPHIA. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: John Rowe OF FRANKLIN COUNTY

OLD BERKS.

The regular democracy of Berks have settled for Assembly. E. Penn Smith, Solomon Custer, and Joshua Miller. With the two last named gentlemen, no doubt very worthy, we have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance. The nomination of E. Penn Smith, Esq., of Womelsdorf, we regard as most judicious and auspicious. We congratulate the democracy of Berks for the same, as he enjoys a most spotless character, and as to solity no one acquainted with Mr. Smith can for a moment question it. His political faith is well established -his democracy as true as the polar star. Without saying anything to the disparagement of others who have represented Berks in the Legislature, we venture to say no one could more faithfully represent the wishes and best interests of its citizens than Mr. Smith will, should he tain the slightest doubt. has crossed a lake three miles wide in an half hour, without so much as wetting his knees in the passage.

The object of the inventor in writing to us was to make inquiries as to the most favorable time and the proper course to be pursued to get up a public exhibition of his skill as a water pedestrian, in Chicago. He confidently avows his willingness to attempt the crossing of Lake Michigan on foot, and only asks for a "good day and a good track," to enable him to land in Michigan in six or seven hours after leaving Chicago.

The idea is certainly a new, novel and interesting one. If, as our correspondent positively avers, there is no doubt of the entire practibility of his invention, the water shoes will be of incalculable value to the world.
