Remarkable developments in fi nanctering have been made in Pittsburg, in the course of a judicial investigation into certain fraudulent transactions connected with the Monongahela Valley Bank. Warrants were issued a few days since for the arrest of Stephen D. Dillaye and S. G. Langdon, of New York, to answer a charge of forgery and conspiracy. The offence charged is that Dillaye and Landon presented forgoperations. The Directors' sent Commissioners to New York to investigate the circumstances of the fraud; and on their return to Pittsburg the warrants of arrest were issued. Langdon was se-
