THE FAIR.—Next week, the second annual exhibition of the Lebanon county Agricultural Society will take place. The indications are that the display in all the departments will be very large, and that the attendance of people from all parts of this and adjoining counthe fair will again be a complete success, and if so the Society may be considered as fairly established and an institution of the county.

The Agricultural Society is doing much to arouse our farmers in greater emulation among themselves, by making them better acquainted with each other, and bringing to their notice the various productions to which our soil is adapted, with the different modes of culture pursued. Its beneficial influen, e is already apparent, in the improved live stock we see in our farmers' fields and stables, and in the more careful attention that is paid to raising of the best varieties of vegetables. It is enpuble of yet more good, if those for whom it is especially intended will interest themselves in its success in the right way. Indeed the Society has claims upon all our citizens, that should not be disregarded for what tends to the farmer's advantage, is of real service to the whole com-

How is it?—The Reading papers contain an item that a German last week hired a horse and buggy from Mr. John Kuplin, black smith of that city, to go as far as Boyerstown. As the fellow did not return, he was followed to Boyerstown, where it was found that he had traded the horse and buggy for a gold watch and chain and sleped. The same fellow shortly after made his appearance in this town and stopped with Mr. Peter Legs, in New Lebanon .-While enting dinner two men, strangers, made their appearance, one of whom represented himself as a constable and arrested him. They, however, offered to leave him run if he would give them the watch which he did, when they left, and he made for Lancaster county. The whole affair is rather a curious proceeding.

Gen. John Weidman announces himself in another column as an Independendent Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.

By reference to the proceedings of the Democratic County Convention, it will be seen that it was decrived inexpedient to nominate a County Ticket this fall. Although we have no local candidates, it is hoped that our party friends will still turn out and give the State Ticket their full and hearty support. The principles of the party are involved in the State Ticket, and they can only be sustained by a full party vote.

FALL FASHIONS.—The "novelty" red velvet and white moire antique, and has, it is of Lebanon County have divided Cornwall town. said, a "piquant effect."

The "Alice Maude" is a new outer garment .-It is made with a doep pointed yoke at the back, and plain in front. The back is gathered into three box-plaits upon the yoke, and the front is fashioned so as to admit of the arm being raised without displacing it ungracefully.

Skirts are worn much longer behind than in front; flounces are altogether disused for the promenade, and the double jupe is worn on all occasions. Circulars are made of white barge and of white Marseilles; the former trimmed with colored quiltings, and the latter with white fringe.

Walking dresses of black and white plaid or stripe, with dusters to match, will be extensively worn. Gaudy colors are utterly discarded by all persons of good taste, especially for the prome-

Slippers are always ernamented by resettes of ribbon or buckles and flat bows, the ends trimmed with laco.

Bonnet ribbons are in great variety, the favorite patterns being two stripes-one white, and the other some rich figure in colors. Another style of ribbon is in blocks of various colors on a white ground.,

Sports of the Ring .- Some of the Agricultural Societies have inaugurated a new feature at their exhibitions. The idea is a good one, and might be incorporated in the programme of our County Fair.

CLASS EXTRA. There will be a pig on the ground with his tail shaved and greased, to be awarded to the person who raises it from the ground with one hand by the tail. Quite a large crowd will be considered Judges in this class.

N. B .- If the tail breaks or pulls out, why, then, the contestant gets what he gets, and so does the pig.

STABBED .- Mr. John Borgner, of this borough, was stabbed rather seriously, with a dirk knife, on Wednesday evening, by John Peter Moyer, stone cutter, also of this place. Borgner is confined to his bed in a critical condition, and Moyer is in jail. The circumstances of the case, as we learn, are as follows: Moyer was in liquor, and went to a neighbor of Borgner's for the purpose of fetching his wife home, with whom he had been quarreling. Making a noise he was requested by Borgner to desist, who also threatened to fetch the police if he did not keep quiet or leave the neighborhood. Affter thus scolding some time, Moyer attacked him and gave him two stabs with the knife, one of which is said to be very near the heart. Moyer then ran home, where he was arrested and committed to prison.

The Concert given by Miss Caroline Richings, in the Court House, on Friday evening, was not so well attended as we had hoped it would be, owing partially to the inclement weather, and also to the Oircus performances which drew the large body of pleasure seekers .-The audience was, however, appreciative, and the goed humor in which the fair singer and her assistants were placed by their reception induced them not only to carry out the programme but exceed it. We cannot describe Miss Richings' powers as a singer, but, certainly, we never heard the like before, and we have heard some good singing by crack singers. We feel assured in saying, and those present agree with us, that the objection raised by many that the admission fee was too high, was of no account, as Friday evening's entertainment was worth treble any twenty-five cent Concert they ever listened too. We also feel confident in saying, that if Miss Richings should favor us with another concert, there would be "no beggarly account of empty beach-

Esquire Gleim committed to jail a Monday four drunken strollers. They had seen in the poor house the night before, and during Monday obtained sufficient money to buy a bottle of whiskey with which they became drunk. One of them thinking himself cheated in the distribution of the liquor fell upon his companions with a club and beat two of them severely. He was committed for fifteen days, and the others until morning.

The mail between Lebanon and onestown is now again carried daily. The department is at all times willing to give all the ecessary mail facilities its means will allow, and we feel confident that other routes on which the service has been reduced, will speedily be returned to the old schedule. Shaefferstown and Lebanon is one of the most important on the list for restoration, and we trust to hear speedily the good news.

The Circus-Calliope and allwas here. The drunken man was here before the Circus, having left home very early in the morning, and having provided himself with a quart the ovening before. We were pleased to see our friend Mr. David McKinney employed as an assistant Doorkeeper of one of the side shows. The ther man trok the money.

How IT HAPPENED .- Mr. James | man ever entered the household. Simmers got himself to jail the other day. In less than twelve hours he was out again much to the surprise of his friends. He also had a skinned drunkard's life. To this Prentice adds, some pernose when again broathing through it the pure air of liberty. "How is it Jim, that you are out of jail and have, a battered nose?" said we .---"How did I get out of jail?" said he. "I fell out of the confounded old thing, and that's where I hurt my nose." He thinks of prosecuting for lamages. This should be a warning to the powers that be.

PICKLED TOMATOES .- Puncture them slightly with a pointed instrument the size of a straw; then fill a jar with alternate layers of tomatoes and salt, and let them stand for several days. Then to each gallon of tomatoes add two bottles of powdered mustard, four ounces of cloves, and six onions sliced. Put these in layers through the tomatoes; then cover the whole with strong vinegar.

Mr. George F. Reinhard has fitted up handsomely and conveniently, the Restaurant in the basement of Funck's New Building, Lebanon. Sects must always have an absorbing interest for the thoughtful abserver, and a work which af-fords the desired information, in a convenient and accessible form, at a moderate price, has been ur-gently demanded, and will be sought for with avidity, and must command a large sale.

In the present work, the origin, development, doctriand belief, Church government and peculiarities of over eighty different religious sects, are treated in a style clear, compendious and accurate, and will afford all the information which

and the importance and value cannot be too highly estimated of such superior and unbiassed effort in a work of this kind, as too often, those pretending to give correct information upon such preunding to give correct information upon such subjects are prejudiced in favor of some particular sects or denominations. Mr. Rulison has brought out the work in a very handsome form, and the public is indebted to him for a very valuable, instructive and useful book. The price, $1,00, is remarkably low for such a work, and in order that it may have a rapid and extensive circulation, he will send it to any address accompanied with a valuable Gift, on the receipt of the price and twenty cents to propay postage. Lebanon, Sept. 21, 1859. All about the Fair! OH, MY! OH, MY! ONLY hear what the Ladies and Gentlemen Say—
First, the Ladies say that New Brooms sweep cloan; and Gents say the proof of the Pudding is in cating it.
Oh! My! did you ever see such a lot of Boys and Girls. Such a crowded

STORE in all your life. Well indeed, it is no wonder, for such an immense stock, of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES & QUEENSWARE enough to make us rejoice and walk like Kings and BEST AND CHEAPEST GOODS, that have even passed over a LEBANON COUNTER. They all with one accord exclaim, HURRAH! HURRAH! FOR PFLEGER'S STORE.

We want no dreary Prison here,
To mar our present Joya;
For Pleger's goods will reform the World,
And honor to all around.
