THE TWO MISERS.

A miser living in Kufa, had heard that in Bassora also dwelt a miser, more misorly than himself, to whom he might go to school, and from whom he might go to school, and from whom he might go to school, and from whom he might learn much. He forthwith journeyed thither, and prosented himself to the miser as an humble commencer in the art of advice, anxious mencer in the art of advice, anxious herefore, he go to school a distribution of the fact so that he can make his arrungements accordingly.

They went to the baker. "Thou hast good bread?"

"Mark this," said the man of Bassora to the one of Kufa; "butter is broad as being head, as being the better of the two; as we can consume only a small quantity of that, it will be the cheaper; and we shall therefore act more wisely, and more savingly, too, in being satisfied with butter. They then went to the butter merchant and asked if he had good but-

ALPHABETIC CONUNDRUMS. Why is the letter D like a fallen an-

Because it is the beginning of greatness and goodness. Why is the letter H like the dying

A FRENCH INVENTION.—The new wheel-barrow which is worked by the men employed to repair the damage occasioned by the fetes, in the gardens of the Tuileries, is attracting much attention. The novelty of the machine consists in the two legs of the barrow being replaced by two wheels, smaller than the one in front. and which are fixed immediately under the body of the barrow. The handles are raised so as to be on a level with the hands of the workmen; and thus, upon a level road, a slight push is all that is necessary for the transport of the heaviest load. The three wheels being almost close together, the act of turning the barrow in the smallest space becomes as easy as possible. The workman has but to lean upon one of the handles, and the front wheel is lifted from the ground, leaving the barrow free to be manoeuvred like a common hand-cart.

WHAT AM I GOING TO DO? One afternoon a boy saw a person drop his purse. He picked it up and put it in his pocket, and was walking off with it. "What am I going to do?" came into his mind; and the answer followed :- "I am going away with a purse of money that does not belong to me. This is not honest; I shall be a thief if I do so. God has said, Thou shalt not steal.'" In another moment he ran after the person and gave up the purse.

"What am I going to do?" asked a boy, who took his fishing tackle instead of his books, and was stealing out of the back door of his father's house.-"I am going to play truent, deceive my parents, neglect my school, and go in the company of bad boys."—
The case looked a bad one; he turned about, put away his fishing tackle, found his satchel, and ran off to school.

These boys were saved from much evil by stopping to think. Solomon says, "Ponder the path of thy feet."

HIBERNIAN.—An Irish clergyman having gone to visit the portraits of the Scottich kings in Holyrood house, observed one of the monarchs of a very youthful appearance, while his son was depicted with a long beard, and were the traits of extreme old age. "Sancta Maria!" exclaimed the good Hibernian, "is it possible that this gentleman was an old man when his father was born !"

To Let" is the common sign Philip F. McCauly whereas the English say. "To be Let."
Persone familiar only with the Amercan form lose something of the point of the old story about the gentleman who, going to examine a house marked "To be Let." found: a very pretty maid in charge, and asked whether she was to be let with the house.

This confisiod and replied. "No sir: I am to be let alone."

"Dr. Hunter's Medical Manuel." The author of this work, unlike the mijority of these who advertise to cure the diseases of which it treats, is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United States. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victim of mal-practice, as a successful and experience of practicioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

JOSEPH S. LONGSHORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University, Philadelphia.

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Mydical Manual". Numerous cases of Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by Self-abuse, or Excess of venery, I do not know his superior in his profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one, in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

THILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE—Established twenty two years ago by Dr. KINKELIN, corner of Third and Union streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS?

Experience has rendered Dr. K. a most successful practitioner in the cure of all diseases of a private nature, manhood's debility, as an impediment to marriage; nervous and sexual infirmities, diseases of the skin, and those arising from abuse of mercury.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTIGE.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in due time, not only hegots serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

rise to a sories of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections.

Fow of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable sensations, and vague fears in the mind. [Seepages, 27, 28, 29, 69 for K.ys book on "Self-Preservation."]

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to lahor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak; he is dull, irresolute, and ongages even in his sports with less energy than usual.

If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrinoury, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies. These are considerations which should awakes the attention of all who are similarly situated.
