A CARD. I beg leave to return my hearty and sincere thanks to those who voted for me at the late thanks to those who voted for me at the late election. Lam especially thankful to the friends and neighbors to whose kindly feelings I owe the very handsome majority given to me in this borough, where I was born, bred and always lived. It will be my constant aim, to the extent of my capacity, to prove myself worthy of the generous support I have received.

JOHN WEIDMAN.

Lebanon October 15, 1859.

There was a rumor that Raber & Bros. have the largest, the handsomest and the cheapest stock of new Fall goods in this Borough, and it is now proven that it is really so. Ladies call and see them. For men's and boy's wear they can't be beat.

An extra Passenger train will leave Lebanon on the above three days of the Harrisburg Fair, at 61 A. M., returning at 5 P. M. Tickets from Lebanon $1. Intermediate places in proportion.

A special Meeting of the Y. M. C. Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock, at their Room above D. S. Raber's Drug Store. All the members should be present as some important business is to be transacted.

At a meeting of the Lebanon County Medical Society held on Wednesday, October 12th, 1859, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted. WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to take from our midst a brother member of our society, a popular and skillful physician, a generorous warm hearted friend, a gentleman who was an honor to the fraternity and beloved by all who knew him, and whose intercourse with the members of this association was of the most agreeable and pleasant kind, therefore be it,
