The Corner.

HON, WILLIAM WILKINS .- A traveling correspondent of the St. Louis bar Republican thus write-:

"A few days ago, while in Pittsburg. we called on Judge Wilkins, who resides in Base Laberty, one of its beautiful public. The suburbs, within hearing of the city, but out of the noise and smoke of the American Birmingham. Judge Witkins was a great man in the days when there were giants in the land. He has been United States Senator from Pennsylvania, United States Judge, Gen. Jackson's Minister to Russia, and President Tyler's Secretary of War. In 1832 he ran on the Jackson ticket in Pennsylvania, for Vice President, and carried the Sinte by 80000 majority. In fire and energy of spanner, Judge Wikans is more like a youth of eighteen than a Nestor of eighty. The ancodotes, the history, the personal experience of the counsel, the wirdom and the wit, which fall from his lips on w. arever subject he discourses render him a delightful companion. May he live long to enjoy the reverence, accorded by his friends and neighbors."

VALUABLE INVENTION .- The Scientific American speaks of a new invention for horse shoeing, designed to obviate the continual driving of nails in the hoof, by which great injury is some. times tofficted upon valuable horses by unakillful werkenen. A groove is made in the underside of common shoe, isto which is fastened a piece of iron of the same width and shape as the groove, only thicker and slightly curved upwards, the junction forming a complete dovetail. The advantage of this inner shoe is, that it is made to project beyond the ordinary shoe, and when worn down can easily be removed and replaced by another without pulling off the shoe from the horse's hoof.

occupying it by working at embroidery, was one afternoon engaged upon a red flower, and theing goxtails to finish it, prolonged his labor until twitight came on, and he found it difficult to select the suitable colors. To obtain more light, he went to the companion way, and there continued his work. While thus taxing his eyes, his power of distinguishing colors suddenly vanished. He went upon the deck, hoping that an increase of light would restore his vision. In vain from that time to the present (more than ten years) he has remained color-blind." -

FOR THE LADIES .- The latest Paris style of "doing up" the hair for young ladies, may be inveresting to some of our readers: "The hair is parted down the middle of the forchead, arranged in rich bandeaus, and then wound found the head in a double plat, forming a diadem; on the back of the head is placed a large velvet bow with long ends."
