In this way he amassed an estate worth four hundred thousand dollars, Such was his attact ment to money that he was never known to credit a single dollar to any man. Upon the hest mortgage or other security that could be given he would not lend a cent. He never vested one dollar in public funds, neither would be keep the notes of any bank longer than he could get them changed. He deposited his specie in a large iron chest, until it would hold no more. He ther provided a strong iron booped barrel, which he also filled. After his death his strong boxes fielded two hundred and therey thousand dollars in gold and silver.

The cause of his death was as remark able as the course of his life. A gentleman from Virginia offered bim $12 a bushel for a 110 bushels of claver seed: but he would not sell it for less than $13, and they could not agree. The need was atterwards ent to Philadelphia, where it was sold for seven dollas per hushel, and brought in the whole five chandred and fifty dollars less than the Virginian had off red for it. A compound remedy, in which we have labored to porduce the most effectual alterative that can be made.—
It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sar.aparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted follow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

Scrofull AND SCROFILOUS COMPLAINTS, EXCEPTIONS AND
