The set of the humanitatian movements of the times although known as such, can hardly be over estimated in its importance upon the well being of our widely soattered communities. The population of the American States is in ma-ny sections so sparse, that skillful Physi-cians are hardly available to them... Vast numbers of our people, are obliged to employ in slokness, such medical relief as they can hear of from each other, or indeed any they can get from any quarter. Hence arise the great consumption of Patent Medicines among us, greater by far than any of the old countries, where skillful physicians are necessible to all classes. Unprincipled men have long availed themselves of this necessity, to palm off their worthloss nostrums, until the word has become synonimous with imposition and chest.
