How to Prevent Wet Feet.—At a season like the present, when wet feet are so all the inhabitants of the earth, will see, by readcommon a complaint, the annuxed hints will probably be acceptable. They are extracted from a work whose editors are well skilled in that sort of thing. Put a pound of rosin in a pot on the fire; when melted and mixed, warm the boots and apply it hot with a painter's brush, until neither soles not the upper leather will soak in any more. If it is desired that the boots should immediately take a polish, disslore an ounce of wax in a tea spoonful of lamp black. A day or two after the boots have been treated with the tallow and rosin, rub over them this wax In terpentine, but not before the fire. Thus the exterior will have a coat of wax alone, and shine like a mirror. Tallow or grease becomes rancid, and rots the stitching and leather; but the rosin gives it an anti-septic quality, which preserves the whole. Boots and shoes should be so large as to admit of cork soles. Cork is so bad a conductor of heat, that with it in the boots the feet are always warm on the coldest stone floor.

It is acknowledged by all physicians and others who have seen their action, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERD PILLS are a perfect cure for all billious affections. So pleasantly do they search out and drive away the seeds of disease, that all persons living in a county where Fever that all persons living in a county where Fever of the liver, stomach, and other organs concerned in digestion, are the most frequent. They naturally make the sufferer nervous irritable and complaining, and relatives and friends are forced to bear the brunt of the ill-hamor. The use of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will prove an efficient remedy for this evil. It will not only strengthen the whole physical organization, but entirely cure the most obstinate cases of Indigestion, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and Liver Com-plaint. The first physicians in the country are loud in their praise of this preparation. Another umendation of the Bitters is that it is so palatable to the taste that it may be used even as a
