Wm. M. Dreselen, Editor and Proprietor. LEBANON, PA.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1880.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1880 JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE

FOR GOVERNOR HENRY D. FOSTER

- PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. RICHARD VAZEE, District at Large. U.S. M. KEND...

THE TARIFF.

After all the boasting of the Republican press, that their party is the only one that can be relied on to favor a modification of the Tariff, it is coming out that the most serious opposition to this measure will be encountered from the Republican side of the House.

The friends of Morrill's tariff bill will be compelled to amend the 12th, 13th, 14th, and 15th sections of that bill, or they may lose the votes of the woolen manufacturers. This cannot be too quietly attended to.

The above proves that there are free-traders among the opposition as well as among the "locofoccs." What proof, however, was needed of the fact when the opposition leaders at Banks, Wilnot, and others, the greatest free-traders of them all.

The Legislature adjourned on Tuesday last. The Free Banking Bill was signed by the Governor previous to adjournment. The following acts relating to Lebanon county were also passed and no doubt signed by the Governor.

THE GREAT BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.—The glorious uncertainty of the law, was never more strikingly exhibited than in the result of the second trial of the case of Miss Effie G. Carstairs against Henry Shaw, Esq., of St. Louis.

When the Democrats are in power they must bear the responsibility of all that is done, and of a good deal that is concocted only in the imagination of the opposition.

A bill was passed by the last legislature requiring a notice to be published of all intended applications for local corporation and municipal legislation in the several counties of the State.

A FRIEND'S EPITAPH.—The Philadelphia Inquirer, as Republican paper, notices below the demise of the last Pennsylvania Legislature, two-thirds of the members of which were of its own political household.

Both Houses of the Legislature have adjourned, and that one set we tender them our hearty thanks for their history of Pennsylvania.

We trust the people will take care and not repeat the dose. The experiments of opposition legislation in 1855 and 1860 are dear bought lessons.

One fellow, named Pettybone, has already been arrested for perjury in swearing to falsehoods before the Covode Investigating Committee.

The Charleston National Democratic Convention will meet on the 23d inst, next Monday two weeks.

Robert M. Palmer, of Schuylkill county was elected Speaker of the Senate for the recess.

THE SUNBURY AND ERIE RAILROAD.—The Sunbury and Erie bill, which was so long debated in our State Legislature, passed, and has become a law.

The pickpockets made an invasion of Lancaster last week, and speedily relieved a number of the country people of their well-lined pocket books.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY!

WILLIAM SPRAGUE, Democratic Candidate Elected Governor.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT ARRESTED!

The State election in Rhode Island took place on Wednesday of last week, and after one of the most exciting contests ever known.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

The State election in Connecticut was held on Monday of last week, and the Republicans carried it by the pitifully small majority of 571 votes.
