PENNSYLVANIA.

Many persons are under the impression that the name of our State owes its title to the fact of an influence exercised by William Penn, on the Councils of England to that effect. Such is not the case, as proved in the extract from a letter written by William Penn, dated January 5,

"This day, after many waitings, watchings, solicitings, and disputes in council, my country was confirmed to me under the great seal of England, with large powers and privileges, by the name of Pennsylvania, a name the King would give it in favor of my father. I chose New Wales, being a hilly country; and when the Secretary, a Welshman, refused to call it New Wales, I proposed Sylvania, and he added Penn to it; though I was much opposed to it, and went to the King to have it struck out .--He said it was past, and he would guineas move the under Secretary to vary the name; for I feared it might be looked on as vanity in me, and not as a respect in the King to my fath. as a respect in the King to my fathor, as it really was."

Tooth-Drawing in Spain describes an itincrant dentist, in the public square at Cadiz, to whom a patient, in the shape of pain-stricken muleteer, came, griping at his jaw for assistance. The grave quack did not dimount, hardly stooped in his saddle, but, with one experienced, far-sighted glance at the cavernous tooth, drew a long Toledo rapier, with a curious twisted steel hilt, that hung by his side, slipped the point-under the muleteer's black fang, and scoped it out with a single twitch. With military precision he wiped his sword, slipped it back into its sheath, held out his hand for the two-penny fee, touched his hat and rode gravely away.

The following extract from the records of the Lancaster county (Pa.) court shows how street beggars and vagrants were treated by our forelathers. Barbarous as it may appear, there is no doubt but that, if similar punishments were still inflicted upon the class of offenders, "vagabond beggars" would be 'few and far between, and the criminal and pauper expenses of the county be materially lessen-

"August, 1736. Dr. William Smith, a vagabond beggar, sentenced to receive 10 lushes in a public place in Lancaster, and conducted from constable to constable, and get ten lashes in the most public place in each township till he shall reach the bounds of the county, at Octoraro, and then dismissed.

In the Government of Tamboff, a rich proprietor, Mr. R—y, who had seduced one of his female be condemned to hard labor in the ment of mines for life. But, says the Russian reporter, an independent jury would probably have discharged him. At least, in a case nearly similar, the Emperor Nicholas so decided. A proprietor was entering a forest with his hounds for a day's hunting.— Meeting a little boy, whose father was cutting woodat a distance, the hounds barked at him and the little fellow, picking up a stick, tried to defend himself. The proprietor, enraged that this imp of a slave should dare to threaten his dogs, set them upon the

the most indubitable evidence of the virtues of this wonderful medicine.
Sworn statement of David M'Creary, of Napier Township, Bedford county:

In April, 1850, as near as I can remember, a small pimple made it appearance on my lip, which scome became enlarged and sore. I used poultiese of sorrel, and wash of blue vitrol, without effect. Finding the sore sextending, I called on Dr. Rly, of Schellsburg, who pronounced it Oances, and prescribed a weardings of no gave me intermal and external remedies—the latter consisting principally of caustics; but all to an purpose, the disease continued spreading toward the nose. I next used a preparation of arsenic, in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease, but the finfammation soon increased. I next called upon Dr. Estater, of St. Clairs ville, Bedford county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and applied a salve said to be a never failing remedy, but it had no effect whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In December, of the same year, the disease ontinued growing in the form of salve. This for a time checked the flower whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In December, of the same year, the disease continued when the first whatever in checking the the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not cell scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SRIN DIREASES, ST. ANTHONY'S F.R.F., ROSE, OF ERYBRELLAS, PUMPLES, PUSTULES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RIBLIM, SCALD HEAD, RINGOMEN, SHEUMATINE, SYPHLITIC and MERCURIAL DIREASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPIA, DEBILITY, and indeed, ALL COMPLAINES ADMING THOM VITTATED OR IMPRES BLOOD. The popular belief in "Impurity of the Hlood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which seamed health is impossible in contaminated constitutions,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, For all the purposes of a Family are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their pentrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its boseased action, and restoring its heastey distincts. As tocousequence of these properties, the invalid who is diwed down with pain or physical debility is as a nyshed to find his heath or energy restored by a remied at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every-body, but also many, formidalle and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels Flatulency, Loss of Appetile, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almest every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from nlarming and even sesperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind; is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known; the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and cangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies threat upon the community have failed and been discarded; this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures foo numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

It is an established fact, that all discases arise from IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or in healthy matter gets mixed with it, it is all at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every Zavefeels the poisen, and all the vital organs quickly complain.—The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of bile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feelle. The lunge become cloged with the poisonoise matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the tountain-head of life—the Blood! As If you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purity the blood, but regenerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivaled as a ...
