WE were exceedingly well pleased with the Concert given on Wednesday ev'ng last, in the Court House, by Miss Louisa Miller. The audience was large and appreciated the performances. Miss M. has a full and very sweet voice, and would be a fair competitor to the most noted and popularsingers that ever delighted an American audience. She was admirably assisted by her brothers and sisters and a number of gentlemen volunteers.

The old jail will in a very short time be one of the things that were, and its best friends and acquaintances will be unable to re 100.00 cognize it. The work is progressing rapidly 21.00 under the Superintendence of Mr. David Holling-300.00 50.00 er, County Commissioner. 360.00

Dr. George Lineaweaver Dead.-Death still holds his Court in our midst, and continues to make sad havoo. We are now called upon to record the sudden death of another well known and estimable citizen. On Monday morning Dr. George Lineaweaver had a stroke of the Palsy, under which he lingered until night when he died. The "old Doctor" was one of the old land-marks of Lebanon,-one of its most respected and useful citizens; and his demise will be deplored by a largely extended circle of rela tives and friends. The suddenness of the calamity is a severe shock to the whole community, who "but yesterday" looked upon him as hale and hearty.

The Platform Committee dis-agreed, and submitted to the Convention a ma-jority and minority report. The majority report was first offered, the minority report presented at an amendment; which its minority report presented at an amendment; which its minority report becaused at ment. This latter proposition received 105 votes, Dr. Gloninger among the number. The Douglas men generally, voted against taking the Cincin-nati Platform without explanations. Had it been adopted it is probable that the subsequent diffi-cuities might have back avoided. "After the defeat of this mensure of concord, the question, prese of the minority Platform,

"After the defeat of this measure of concord, the quastion proce on the minority Platform, against which Dr. Gioninger voted. His object in taking this course was to get at the majority report, and put it in such form as to be accepta-ble to the Convention. It was this intention to vote against the second resolution, which is sup-pored to convention an adorsement of the doctrine of Conversional protection to allower in the Tarposed to construin an anaorsamene of the doctrine of Congressional protection to slavery in the Ter-ritories, and thus remove from the Platform the feature most objectionable to a majority of the Northern delegates. But as this opportunity was not object, his vote stands on, the record as was not operate, his vole ranges of the four of the first for the Choine in Platform pure and simple. He relues to sign the paper instructing Mr. Wright to vote for the majority report. "Dir Chininger voted for Mr. Guthrie. His, first choise, and the first choice of the Democrats of Theory Source with the first choice of the Democrats first choice, and the first choice of the Democrats of Lapanon sounty, is Mr. Breckinridge, but as his name was not presented to the Convention, he took the course best adapted to promote the interests of his invortige and date. For Mr. Dou-glas he could not vote. Dr. Gloninger entertains no inverterate prejudice against Mr. Douglas, and should he receive the nomination world support him with earnestness-and so would the Demo-grate of this county. But he is not their choice, and they claim the right to exercise the privileges. and they claim the right to exercise the privilegest according to all Democrats."
