From which I would infer "a light Democratic wason" meant, a wagon the most popularly in use which is a square box wagon.

I am surprised that any one pretending to the least bit of intelligence, (and much less one who protends to cater for the public as editor of a journal) should be at fault as regards so small a matter at Ma above. Yours Truly, TANE FAGER, 10 YEARS OLD.

LEBANONTO HAVE THE SENATOR. The following from Saturday's Patriot and Union of Harrisburg, shows that that county yields the next State Senator to Lebanon county. This will be good news to an army of our opposition friends. Now, on Heidleberg, on Jackson, on Swatars, on Lebanon, the field is clear; Dauphin yields, and he who comes in first in the race in Lebanen county shall wear the mantle of Senatorial honors, if the people decide not otherwise at the polle :-- -

Crop Prospects.—The following from an exchange applies so well to this county, that we prefer to use in preference to our own writing:-Better growing weather than we had of late can scarcely be imagined, and certainly The earth is fully charged with moisture; it seems almost from a barren rock. Corn which had been planted before the rains set in, came up as if by magic; while those who were so unfortunate as to have been caught with unplanted fields, had a fine opportunity to regain the ground they lost. voyage at the latter place, (to day,) the 13th. Safe journey. THE WEATHER, though cutting up all sorts of antics, and changeable as Joseph's coat, brings out vegetation with a rush. On Thursday the tory manners, and we hope to hear of them being AN IRISH LOVER once remarked that it is a great pleasure to be alone, especially when you "swatcheart is wid ye." We saw a your fun a few evenings ago, with, head mounted with a new tile, treating his "nilorable" to delicious ice and earthly sorrow, in a beastly state of intoxication. We hope he may be the last one.

THE GRAVE YARDS around town present a peautiful appearance. The trees are out in full leaf, the flowers are in bloom, and the avenues are covered with gravel. Here we find the retiring place of those whom we once revered, but who now live only in our memories. May those "sweet homes" for the dead, and holy shrines for the living never be neglected.

PIC-NICS.—We understand that several of our schools intend to hold pic-nics in the pleasant groves in the vicinity of this borough. Pic-nic parties are an excellent institution, and as means of rendering amusement and recreation, they are indispensably necessary. We undertake that the testing up of a grand pic-nic parties.

keep their children at home in the evening, than to permit them to graduate at the street corners. We overheard a number of boys parsing their lessons at one of the corners, the other night, in a style that would doubtless have astonished their parents. Their preficiency in profanity and vulgarity showed an attention to their studies that promises well for the penitentiary.

A BEAUTY .- Stepping into Roedle's bookstore, on Saturday, we saw what purports to be laid over till the 21st of June. Mr. D.E. Miller a correct likeness of Abe Lincoln. At first sight we took it to be a picture of Heenan, after his encounter with Sayers. If that portrait is a correct one, every family in the land should secure one. As a means of frightening naughty children it would prove invaluable. If such a horrid-looking object can't split raits, nebody else can. No wonder he drove the "Little Giant" into the U. S. Senate. We hope that portrait is not life-like.

RETURNED .- Jim is one of the institutions of Lebanon. Indeed, if he leaves town for but a day to "drop a line" to the "finny tribe" he is county head quarters. It was generally supposed that he had retired from public to private life, to enjoy the shades of Alms Park, near the Lebmon County Palace. But to the surprise of may, who should "turn up again," alive and kicking, but Jim himself. He gives a glowing account of the crops in England, to which place he thinks he had been. The temporary confinement evidently had a good effect upon him.

WILL WE HAVE A 4TH OF JULY? asks cotemporary. When the proper time arrives, that question will be settled without difficulty, but are we going to celebrate the day by a gen eral fandango? Fourth of July celebrations even fifty years ago, were great affairs all over our beautiful country. We hope, as the nation grows older, it will lose none of its patriotism .-We are pleased to hear that several of our enterorising Sabbath Schools have resolved to celebrte the day in the usual manner, and we hope to see "Old Steitz" in all her glory on that occasion. The "bold solger boys" will of course make their appearance, and make the old cannon chime with the ringing of all the bells. We vote for all this, and a little more.

LOCAL REPORTING .- Every community is ourdened with a class of individuals who deem their especial business to find fault with everything they do not originate. No one finds out this class of beings sooner than a newspaper reporter. We have often noticed that those who are most loath to give reporters items, are the first to growl at what they conceive to be errors. Editors and reporters mean to be fair, and if per sons withhold facts from them, causing them to write items on the strength of flying rumor, they should be the last to complain. The best way, gontlemen, when you have an item, is to unbosom yourself to the reporter at once. But if you don't choose to do this, don't flatter yourself that you can trouble them by swearing at them.

HON. MILLARD FILLMORE.—The Boston Courier is authorized and requested by Mr. Fillmore himself to say that there is no truth whatever in the report as to his intentions to support the Chicago nominations.

THE FEMALE ORGANIZATION is often as frail as that of a tender flower. Many of the sex enter into marriage relations without being able to undergo the labors and trials of maternity.
