HOME AFFAIRS.

A Republican Delegate convention of this county will be held on Monday the 30th of July. Among those publicly announced as candidates for jobs under the new arrangement to notice Henry Bross, of Union, for Register, and John H. Miller, of North Lebanon, for Recorder and Clerk of the Sessions.

J. W. GLONINGER, M. D., has been appointed one of the censors of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society for the current year, and Dr. D. P. Schneck was elected as one of the delegates to the American Association. The next meeting of the Society will be held at Pittsburg.

Mr. JOSEPH L. LEMBERGER has been elected Superintendent of the Reformed Sunday School, in place of Elias Bayer, dec'd. The selection of Mr. L. is a capital one.

The Concert of Miss CARDINE Richards on Friday evening last was well attended, and as a matter of course the audience could not help being delighted. Another and last, concert will be given this (Wednesday) evening. Miss R. will be assisted by the same talent as at the last, and the programme will be almost an entirely new one. Miss Richards will read the wedding and wooing feast of "Hiawatha"—Price of admission will be, this evening, for a gentleman and two ladies, $1. Single tickets, 37 cents. Concert to commence at 8 o'clock.

The 3d Captain cannot fully express his admiration of the five farms, (and all are such) in South Lebanon. A farm of say 150 acres to bring $100 an acre is a pretty good price these times. In valuing a certain farm during his labors as census marshal last week, he asked a certain farmer if he should put down his farm at $100 an acre. "No," said the farmer, "I was offered a few weeks ago $130 an acre and refused it."

The Council met on Thursday evening. The Council is a body viewed some streets in East Lebanon. The following orders were drawn, viz: Henry McCord, police, $15; S. J. Babb, do., $15; Wm. Shirk, interest, $34.20; John D. Krause, interest, $18; Jos. Hartman & Son, printing, $15.30; Worth & Reinoehl, printing, $28; J. Young & Co., printing, $29.36; Henry Shott, Market street, $31.75; do., Elizabeth street and Jail Alley, $12.62; Chestnut street, $3.87. A motion to notify Messrs. Worth & Miller to fill up the side walk at their lot at East and Chestnut streets, was postponed, and the Council agreed to visit and view the locality on Saturday evening.

About two weeks ago, the servant man of Mr. Levi Wolf, in Bethel township, was riding a mule through the yard, when he stopped to talk with the children. The mule became frightened some how or other, and in jumping sideways, thumped upon a son of Mr. Wolf's, injuring him so severely that he died in 2 of an hour. He was aged 1 year, 10 months and 18 days.

The Weather.—We had a pretty smart hail storm on Tuesday afternoon, of last week. Pieces of ice, which, upon measurement, were found to be two inches in diameter and six inches in circumference, fell pretty freely. The shellbark and piece of chalk size were very plenty. Hail and thunder storms are of frequent occurrence in this section the last month or two.—A very heavy thunder storm several weeks ago increased the water in our streams to such an extent that the dams at Samuel Moyer's and Leonard Reinhold's mills were broken.

The arrivals and departures of the mails in and from Lebanon and Shaefferstown are as follows:—Leave Lebanon, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 3 o'clock, P. M., and arrive at Shaefferstown by 6 o'clock, P. M.; leave Shaefferstown, same days, at 9. A. M., and arrive at Lebanon by 12 M. Between Shaefferstown and Missener's Mills the arrivals and departures are as follows:—Leave Shaefferstown,—Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8 A. M., and arrive at Missener's Mills by 11 A. M.; leave Missener's Mills, same days, at 11½ A. M., and arrive at Shaefferstown by 2 P. M.

Mr. JACOB KIPP, shot several weeks ago, on the land of Philip Gruber, in Londonderry township, a fox, which from appearance seemed to be the oldest and largest animal of the kind ever seen in this country.

Prof. W. M. Potter will walk a wire, 1 of an inch in thickness, on the 4th of July at 4 o'clock. The wire will be stretched across the street from Light's Washington House to Lauderbilch's store.

Messrs. H. J., H., & H. Erhman, of Annville, have obtained a patent, dated June 5, 1860, for an improved Washing Machine. The invention relates to an improvement in that class of clothes washing machine in which a rotating cylinder is used in connection with a yielding concave placed within a suitable box. The bearings of the rotating cylinder connect to the concave by springs and rods, whereby said parts may be fitted into and removed from the box, and the latter rendered serviceable for rinsing and other useful purposes.

Will our friends in the different villages of the county, as well as in the city localities, send us the news of their neighborhood? Who builds new houses, barns, or other improvements; how the crops are, and who has anything unusual in any line of productions or business; what accidents happen, and all other particulars of interest. We desire to improve the Advertiser still further as an interesting local paper of the whole county, and can do so effectually if matter is sent to us to make items. Send us the facts and we will dress them up for publication. The writers' names will not be divulged. School teachers, storekeepers, or their clerks, school boys, or any others are desired to send us such items weekly, and if they do we will soon print them a paper indispensible to every friend of Lebanon county. If we had about twenty item senders spread over Lebanon county, just see what an account of matter we would receive if each one were to send but one item a week, and in that way everything new in the whole county would weekly appear before the whole people.

Census of 1860.—Question to be Answered.—Where were you born, and when, and were you present at the time?

Do you own any free negroes and are they all Black Republicans?

Were you ever elected inspector of elections and how much did it cost you?

If half an acre of ground will yield one hundred bushels of Buta Bags, how many banks will it take to discount a thirty day note in N. York?

Is your sister well?

Have your eyes been into Hoods' Eating Saloon, under Funcke's building? If not go right away and try his eating and drinking. Good day, Sir.

A youthful member of a rifle corps in a Scottish town, on his arrival home one evening, joyfully told his governor that he had just got his arms. "Aiven," quoth the ancient, dolly, "I'll thinkle, and the Queen some we'll have her head off your legs."

Digging out Gutters.—We noticed last week Mr. Borgner the Assistant Street Superintendent digging out the gutter at the crossing of Water with Mulberry. The digging job is pretty well done but the idea of the improvement will bear criticism.

Death of Mr. Schwartz.—Hon. John Schwartz, member of Congress from Old Berks, Pennsylvania, died at Washington at ten minutes before 4 o'clock, on Wednesday night. His funeral took place on Saturday. Major Schwartz was about the age of the President, and was the immediate successor of J. Glancy Jones.

Mr. H. Huldermilch is receiving constantly additions to his fine stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, &c. A very splendid assortment of Ladies' and Gentlemens' Summer Dress Goods has just been opened within the last few days, to which the attention of the public is invited.

C. P. Steinmetz of South Annville, brought home to his farm yesterday, Twenty-five head of select Family Horses from Cincinnati, Ohio. Any person wishing a good horse will please call and see.

Mr. Wallwork will close his Book Store the first and second week in July for the purposes of remodelling the room, and making other alterations and improvements.

Graeff has a fine assortment of all kinds of Fire Works for the 4th of July operations.

The population of the West Ward of the borough of Lebanon in 2005. The East Ward will exceed the West probably 300, which together with North Lebanon would give us a town of about 5500 population. In 1850 the population of Lebanon proper was 2184. The West Ward alone is now nearly up to that figure. We have more than doubled in the last ten years.

The population of South Lebanon township in 1788. In 1850 the population of South Lebanon, then including Cornwall, was 3,286. The population of Cornwall being now about one-third more than South Lebanon, we have the very encouraging increase of nearly 30 per cent. in the whole of the old district. There are very few counties in the State that will show as healthy, and large an increase in population and prosperity as Lebanon.

A Leap.—Hood keeps a restaurant; he also keeps the Billiard Saloon on the 3d story of Funck's building. In addition Hood keeps a dog. Said dog of Hood's happening to be penned up last week in the billiard saloon, and not liking his contracted quarters, sought the open front window and made a leap for the street. He landed on the portico, and was not harmed a bit. We would advise that dog to be a little more choicy in his leaping operations hereafter as he might break his neck in such sports.

At the recent session of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod, the following sections were added to the Constitution:

"That a Minister, serving his congregation, shall conduct all the public services and ministerial acts according to the Liturgy adopted by this Synod.

"That this body recommend a return to the good old practice of the Church by the use of the clerical gown, in all places where, in the opinion of the Church Council, it can be suitably done."

Also, on motion it was resolved as an opinion of the Synod sitting in ministerium, that in the administration of the sacrament, unleaved bread only should be used.

A very long debate sprang up in relation to the administration of the rite of baptism. The difficulty arose in consequence of an imposter, pretending to be a Lutheran minister, having baptised children in Lebanon county. Such mock baptisms were regarded as if they had never taken place, and only those which were performed by regularly ordained ministers could be recognized.

A vote was at length taken, and it was resolved, in effect, that no baptisms would be recognized unless performed by a regularly ordained Christian minister, except in extraordinary cases, such as extreme illness, the danger of death, etc. Then it may be performed by any lay Christian, but must afterwards be confirmed and ratified by a Christian pastor, being a clergyman of the Lutheran Church.

For the Advertiser.

Mr. Editor.—I noticed in Saturday's Press, that some flippant writer has wilfully misrepresented the Democracy of this county and has falsely stated that "Dr. C. D. Gloninger does not represent the wishes and sentiments of the great body of the Democracy."

The great body of the Democrats of this county will be surprised to read such a statement as false as it is impudent, coming from one too, styling himself a Jeffersonian Democrat.

It is a well known fact, in this vicinity at least, that Dr. C. D. Gloninger's course has been in all respects satisfactory to the great body of the Democracy of this county. He is the man chosen by the county delegates in convention assembled to represent us in the Reading Convention, and was again chosen to represent us in the National Convention, on account of his ardent attachment to Democratic principles; and, while his course may not suit a few, I am free to say that every act of his in the National Convention will be cheerfully endorsed by the GREAT BODY of the Democratic party in this county. I promise this much, from the knowledge I have of the man, and the high opinion I have of his sterling Democracy and his superior judgment.

Such a communication as the one alluded to above, could not have been published in any of the papers issued where the sentiments of the people of this county are known; and the writer being aware of this fact, and knowing the Press to be the acceptable for such an untrue statement, has sent this article to that paper, anxious to assist in playing the game of brag, so long practiced by the editor thereof.

What is this scribbler that says the party endorsing Dr. C. D. Gloninger's course is composed of a corporal's guard of men, that have been Federalists, and seceders from the Whigs, and Know Nothings. Let him make those assertions openly, here in our community and not skulk behind a false signature in Forney's Press; so that we may be enabled to compare his course with that of Democrats, and thus judge which has been true to the interests of the party.

In fine, we think if he be a friend to Douglas he displays but little judgment in thus assailing in the outset the man who will be wanted to secure Douglas' election. Let him reason with himself a little if he is a true Douglas man, and reflect whether his course is persisted in, is likely to do Douglas much good.

Yours, &c., from

Value of the Scriptures.—As the beauty of the world is seen by a graceful variety, so is it in the Scriptures. There are sublime truths, that the most aspiring reason of man cannot overtop; and there are more plain and easy truths, on which the weakest capacity may converse with delight and satisfaction. No man is offended with his garden for having shady thicket in it; no more should we be offended with the word of God, that among so many fair and open walks we here and there meet with a thicket that the eye of human reason cannot look through.—Bishop Hopkins.

THE TIME TO GATHER HERBS.

Everybody who has an herb-bed in the garden, or who keeps on hand a good supply of dried herbs, should see to securing them this month, or at least the most of them. The right time to gather herbs for physique or other purposes, is when they are in their prime, and this is the time. They then possess their peculiar virtues in a higher degree than at any other period.

When one, deservedly esteem in the sun as the days grow long, they will ripen very too rapidly, the leaves and stems become brittle, and the slightest blow will cause them to fall, or will be lost. Let them be laid in the shade and carefully protected from the sun or any dampness.

CHARCOAL DUST.

Mr. Editor:—Having seen it recommended in various publications, that charcoal formed a valuable manure, I was induced to spread some on my lawn. Not having observed any benefit resulting from the application, I am induced to ask if there is any particular method of applying it, or to what crops should it be applied. We should be much obliged to you for information as I can command a very large supply, and would like to use it on my ground if there is any material value in it.

Yours &c., W. C. E.

Charcoal has not, if any, value as a manure. Its absorbing qualities have been its great recommendation, and even these, we believe, have been greatly exaggerated. As a corrective in clayey and tenacious soils, it is of great value, rendering such soils open and more permeable to the action of the atmosphere. Its chief value with us is as a mulch in summer and a protecting covering in winter. A few inches in thickness, spread over the roots of newly transplanted trees, will preserve the moisture in the soil far more effectually than any other material that we have used, and the most severe frost that occurs in this latitude will not penetrate through a covering of six inches in the thickness of the charcoal dust produced in wood burning locomotive engines. For reasons above mentioned, it is a useful ingredient in compost heaps.

The managers of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Fair, in view of the possible extension of the cattle disease in a western direction, have given public notice that no stock will be allowed to be introduced on the fair grounds next fall, from any of the "infected districts" in Massachusetts, or wherever it may spread before that time.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above complaints to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Remarkable Case of an Aged Person.

RICHMOND, Tioga Co., Pa., Aug. 25, 1858.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.,

Gentlemen:—After suffering for thirty years with Dyspepsia, and trying many remedies recommended for that disease without any good result, I was induced by Dr. F. H. White to give the OXYGENATED BITTERS a trial. I took two bottles, which gave me much relief; I concluded to try two more, which have nearly or quite effected a cure. I am now nearly seventy-two years of age, and for three months past have eaten my food without experiencing the slightest inconvenience or suffering; and it is with pleasure that I recommend your remedy to dyspeptics. A. BLEYARD.

FROM DR. WHITE.

MANSFIELD, Tioga Co., Pa., Aug. 28, 1858.

I have used the OXYGENATED BITTERS in my practice with decided success in debility and general prostration &c., and confidentially recommend it in general debility and diseases of the digestive organs.

A CARD.

By the Perseverance Band of Lebanon.

With Grateful feelings we tender to the Ladies of the Perseverance Band Fair our heartfelt thanks for their laudable efforts in our behalf, and the kind manner in which they responded to the calls upon their labors and skill, which we will always remember with pleasure and gratitude, and will be to us the brightest page in the history of our association.

We duly appreciate the presence in our midst on the occasion of the visit the "Privateers," "Hummelstown," "Columbia," "Manetawa," "Wonderful" and "Cold Run" bands, and offer them our sincere thanks for the generosity which prompted them to accept our invitation, and will always hold in kind remembrance the many courtesies connected with them on that day.

To the public generally, we owe a debt of gratitude for the liberal manner in which they supported and patronized us on that day, which we shall never forget, but shall ever remember with feelings of thankfulness and pride.

By order of the Band,

JOEL HOFFMAN, Committee.

JOHN RISE,

J. B. REINOEHL,

Lebanon, June 22, 1860.

The Female Organization is often as frail as that of a tender flower. Many of the sex enter into marriage relations without being able to undergo the labors and trials of maternity. In this country thousands of young and beautiful women are sacrificed every year from this cause alone. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters will save many of the Class from an untimely grave. This medicine has been used with great benefit by immense numbers of people throughout the republic, and the proprietors have received grateful commendations from all sections of the country. The Bitters will be found to be very pleasant to the taste, even as a beverage and prompt and powerful in its effect as a medicine. It infuses new vitality into the frame, and strengthens the whole system, so that women while she is area enabled to go through with labors which, without it, be certain to prostrate them.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column.

Blood Food! Blood Food!!—We have noticed feelings in reading the advertisement of Dr. Bronson's Blood Food, in another column; but we think gratification predominates, for, though we regret to see so celebrated a man coming forward, even in appearance under the same flag as quacks, that is, by resorting to advertising, yet we take satisfaction also in knowing that there is now a reliable preparation before the people for that most melancholy and fatal disease—Consumption, and other organic complaints.

Dr. Bronson is a lecturer in our Medical Colleges, and his success in his speciality has been so wonderful that he has consented, at variance with the prejudices of every regular practitioner, to make it known, as he is doing, for the benefit of suffering humanity.

The Proprietors, Agents, however, a firm whose respectability separates entirely his preparations from all tinge of quackery. Messrs. Church & Durent are his sole managers, as they are also for that most invaluable of preparations, Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Coreal. If mothers could know the great care and attention in putting up this article, some idea of which they can form by comparison of it with any other article of the kind,—they would prefer it to anything that has ever been offered them. For our own part, if we had a child suffering, we would not hesitate to administer this preparation, knowing that such careful druggists would not engage in anything that was not perfectly safe and effectual.—Quebec Gazette. See advertisement. For sale by Dr. GEO. ROSS, opposite the Court House, Lebanon, and T. W. DYOTT & SONS, Philadelphia.

Dyspepsia.—This is a very distressing complaint, and gives the patient more suffering than almost any other disease, in fact, it is a combination of many complaints in one. The symptoms are numerous, and are of the nature of almost all other complaints combined. From this fact, arise the very many cases where this disease is mistaken for some other, and so improperly treated. The first symptoms—indigestion, flatulency, loss of appetite, heartburn, headache, etc., if neglected, almost always awaken some dormant disease and cause the patient to suffer to a premature grave.—What you must first do is, cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels; do this with the "Mountain Herb Pills," and you can bid defiance to dyspepsia. INSPECTINE.

The Persian Fever Charm.

FOR the prevention and cure of FEVER AND AGUE AND BILLIOUS FEVERS. This wonderful remedy was brought to this country by the present proprietors by a friend, who has been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an amulet, saying that it would no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all such complaints.

On further investigation he found that the Boatman ascribed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Something after this, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which we compound it. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several of his friends, of the highest character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the perfect and sure cure of Fever and Ague and Billious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

Price $1 per bottle. Sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.

The Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25, 1860.

Since our last report the breadstuffs market has exhibited the same anxiety on the part of holders and receivers to dispose of their stock which we then noticed; although the recent favorable news from Europe, and the ex citement in neighboring markets, has caused some parties to ask a slight advance in prices, we don't hear of any sales at figures above our quotations. To-day Wheat was somewhat unsettled, under the instructions of some large holders to force up prices, and sales were reported as an advance. It is the general opinion that there cannot be any material advance in the price of any description of breadstuffs, considering the present exceedingly favorable condition of the crops and the stock on hand. Corn shows a steady market at our quotations, and some receivers are storing for higher figures. Rye is dull, and lower. Oats are dull. Whiskey is improving in demand and in price, and good packages sell readily. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are dull. We quote:

FLOUR.—Superfine, $5.25. Extra, $5.50 to $5.75. Family, $5.75 to $6.25, and $6.50 for fancy.

RYE-FLOUR.—Penny'vania offered at $3.87 and $4.00 per bbl.

CORN MEAL.—Yellow, $3.87½ per bbl.

WHEAT.—Red, $1.30 to $1.37, latter for very prime and choice; White, $1.40 per bushel.

RYE.—Pennsylvania, 72 cts.; Southern, 75 cts.

CORN.—Selling freely at 58 cts. per bushel.

OATS.—Pennsylvania, 32 cts.; Southern, 30 cts.

WHISKEY.—Ohio, 22 cts.; Pennsylvania, 21 and 21½ cents.

PLASTER.—Soft offered at $3.00 per ton.

Yours respectfully,

McCANN & WEIGLEY,

JAMES McCANN, Jr., Philadelphia.
