

Lebanon Advertiser. WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1850. DEMOCRATIC TICKET. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

FOR GOVERNOR, HENRY D. FOSTER, OF WESTMORELAND.

It is high time for the Democracy of Pennsylvania—both the friends of Douglas and Breckinridge—to decide whether they will allow Mr. Forney and his Press to manage the Democratic party to its ruin...

The Republican strength in 1856 was less than one-third of the popular vote of the Union. Late elections have not shown them to be any stronger now proportionally than they were then.

The glorification of the opposition, relative to the Oregon election, is somewhat dampened by the intelligence received by the last steamer, that the Democratic candidate for Congress is elected...

THE DIFFERENCE.—When Sumner was Brooks-ed the whole Republican army shouted indignantly. Their ox was gored then. A week or two ago G. W. Bowman, a democrat, was served in precisely the same way.

Hon. Richard Vaux, Elector at Large on the Democratic Ticket, and J. R. Crawford, of Hollidaysburg, Elector for the 18th District, both refuse to pledge themselves to the arrangement of the State Central Committee.

The freight bill of the Phoenix Iron Works at Phoenixville, on the Reading Railroad amounts to about $340 a day.

The arrangement of the State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, is becoming every day more popular. Its superiority over every other proposition is beyond question.

The friends of Douglas claim 160 electoral votes in the northern states, in which the 27 of Pennsylvania are included. 154 are necessary to the election of a President.

While accepting the Republican candidates does the Courier "spit" upon the party? It would seem from the above fact, and that the call for their county convention, and all the announcements of the candidates for office are directed to a "People's Party."

Mr. Vaux was admitted on the Electoral ticket of Pennsylvania by the members of the Reading Convention as a compromise and conciliation. His recent letter and conduct show exactly how ill he deserved that consideration.

New York is a delightful city—over the left. Last week they had two double murders and any number of single ones. Scarcely had the murder of Walton and Matthews, become generally known, when another still more horrible followed on its heels.

The Pennsylvania publishes a list of 54 country newspapers in Pennsylvania, favorable to the proposition of the State Central Committee. A number of the papers have the names of Douglas and Johnson at their head.

It is said that Prof. Allen, the well-known and somewhat eccentric razor-powder man, together with his wife and children, were lately drowned in the Potomac river by the upsetting of a sail boat.

John Eldred, an Alderman of Harrisburg, died suddenly of sun stroke, in Columbia county, Georgia, on the 5th inst.

The colored gentlemen of New York city have formed a Lincoln and Hamlin Club, and will raise a tree and banner on the 28th inst. O but isn't the Republican cause spreading?

WASHINGTON, July 15.—A proclamation has been issued by the President for the sale of one million acres of land in Minnesota, not hitherto offered for sale.

Government will, no doubt have a full time of it for some time to come, in disposing of the public lands, in the business of "western lands" has been somewhat run into the ground.

We have seen a letter from an ardent and sincere friend of Douglas, in Illinois, to a gentleman in this place, in which the hope is expressed that all Democrats in Pennsylvania will unite upon the electoral ticket now at the head of our columns.

John C. Hoeman, the prize-fighter, arrived at New York, from England, late on Saturday night. He did not bring the "belt," those getting it up not being able to raise the money to get it out of the manufacturer's hands, and who "won't trust."

The ticket at the head of the columns of the Courier still remains unaltered.

DIFFERING.—The opposition say Lincoln is in favor of letting slavery alone where it is. There they differ with Lincoln himself, who would like to stand on the opposite side of the river, flogging brands into Kentucky; in other words, he likes operations like those last fall at Harper's Ferry, but prefers standing in Pennsylvania or some other free state while the work of destruction and death is going on.

The following exhibits the names, residence, birth and age of the several candidates for the Presidency.

President Buchanan was serenaded one evening last week, when he made a speech on the political topics of the day. We shall publish his remarks next week.

WEAKNESS.—The Republicans have weaned one of their "twins" Miss Polyantha has dropped from the breast.

Nathaniel P. Hobert, a well known and venerable citizen of Pottstown, died on the 8th inst.

BRUTAL OFFENSE.—We learn that two men who live at Swatara, Schuylkill county, perpetrated a brutal outrage on a respectable married woman on the public highway, on the 5th of July.

THE MORMONS.—A new programme has been indicated by the authorities at Washington for the Mormons. It is now proposed that the shall emigrate to the East-India Islands, and a reliable information is said to have been received that they will do so.

OLD ABE ON THE BATTLE-FIELD. The following story of the first and last military exploit of Abe Lincoln is told by Toledo Times.

At the time of the Black Hawk war "Abe" enlisted. The company numbered eighty mounted men. They started off in fine spirits to engage in the deadly fray.

The ticket at the head of the columns of the Courier still remains unaltered.

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, OF ILLINOIS. STEPHEN ARNOLD DOUGLAS was born at Brandon, Rutland county, Vermont, on the 25th of April, 1813.

Mr. Douglas, in 1834, introduced the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, designed to re-constitute the principle of the Act not to legislate slavery into any State or Territory, nor to exclude it therefrom.

On the day of the meeting, the flag of the shipping in the harbor was hoisted at half mast, in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the abolitionists in their Know Nothing Lodge; and the church bells were rung as a signal for the mob to assemble.

On the "naturalization question" Mr. Douglas has not been bold and consistent. His entire career has been marked by his defiance and violation of the rights of naturalized citizens and the rights of foreign birth who have made their homes in this country.
