RESOLUTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

RESOLUTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Proteandly impressed with the importance of prompt. rigorous and particle action on the part of the Demo-cratic Blate Committee, in order to avert, if possible the consequences which must inovitably result from the unhappy division now dristing in the ranks of the Democracy in our State and nation, we cordially and honestly recommend to the Democracy of the State that they units with heart and volue in the supports of our ex-relicat and competent nomines for Governor, Henry D. Foster, and that in all the local elections they acknown may have enterialined for the Presidency; bit with a rise to a perfect unity against the common enemy, we recomment to the Democracy of 'Pennsylvanita' to units that routes for President on the black of the study and the total the Democracy of 'Pennsylvanita' to units that routes for President on the black of the study ap-may have enterialing; vist 'That if said electoral those should be cleated by the people, and it should ap-pear, on ascertaining the result in the other States of the union, that by casting the solute of Pennsylva-mis for S. It generally ceases, in a great de-gree, toward the approach of summer, so that an absence of marked evidences of its prevalence at this season is by no means a proof of its eradication. At one time when it prevailed in ma-ny parts of Europe for twelve years, ny parts of Europe for twelve years, tic lubors to unite the fragments of a broken and it always abated in summer, and durdissevered party. But while it: cannot be successfully established that the Coumittee exceeded, in the slightest de-gree, its legitimate powers on the 2d instant, I freely admit that its recommendation is en tirely ing one or two summers, apparently disappeared altogether, but at the approach of winter it broke out afresh and during the months of February new, and is calculated to awaken the deepest in and March it was practicularly denew, and is childrated to awaken the needest in-terest and reflection in the public mind. It is necessarily novel, because the actual position of the Democratic party, at the present time, is to-tally different from its condition in any previous structive.

In 1743 or '44 it was introduced into England from Holland by the importion of its bistery. Two National organiza-tions, "like the twin children of Rebecca, are straggling for the rights of the elder born." A portation of two calves, and it destroyed hundreds of thousands of catstroyed hundreds of thousands of cat. tle, extending its ravages down to 1754-55.
