THE LEBANON ADVERTISER.---A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

The Corner.

A SALE OF PRINCIPALITIES.

The President has issued a proclamation for the sale, in October next, of four and three-quarter millions of acres of public lands in Minnesota, and for the sale next month, of seven millions of acres in Kansas and Nebraska. Here is territory enough to set up a half a dozen kingdoms of the European dimensions. Belgium, Holland, Hanover, the Papal States, and the Swiss Confederation, are each only about one-half as large as the territory now brought to the hammer. Greece contains two thousand square miles less. Not one of the German States of Wurtenberg, Sax-ony, Baden, Hesse Cassel, Hesse Darmstadt, Mecklenburg, Schwerin, widenburg or Nassau, is much more than one-third of this extent; and in fact all of them except Wurtem-burg are less than one-fourth of it.— The other German States do not, in the aggregate, exceed one-half of Oldenburg or Nassau, is much more this amount of territory. Tuscany, Parma, Lucca and Modena, added together, would make about seventenths of it. This superfluous slice of our public lands which we are putting up at auction, is about onesixth as large as Great Britain herself, one-tenth as large as France or Turkey, and one-fifth as large as O'Rourk's Merchant Tailor-Prussia. Truly, there is space enough here for manufacturing principalities and powers without number, and without ever missing the ground.— When it all gets nicely fenced in, and the squatter sovereigns have taken possession, the Lilliputian kingdoms of European sovereigns will not be worth comparing with our Brobdig-nugian dimensions. A HARD HIT.—The Chronicle of the West, a German paper published at Rock Island, thus informs its read-ers of the origin of the wide awakes —a name originally belonging to a plug-ugly association, such as use the Prussia. Truly, there is space enough plug-ugly association, such as use the awl on the election days in Baltimore. The Chronicle says:

The Chronicle says: "The gentlemen of the "Wide Awake club," who are now so zeal-ously blowing their horn, do not ap-pear to know what historical remin-iscences are attached to this namo.— The title 'Wide Awake,' first acquired notoriety in 1854, when it graced those bands of nativeists, who somewhat later acquired such celebrity under the name of 'Know Nothings.' Per-sons who lived in New York in 1854. the name of 'Know Nothings.' Per-sons who lived in New York in 1854, CLOTHING ! CLOTHING ! will remember the outrages which those white-hatted loafers, who called themselves 'Wide Awakes,' repeatedly committed upon the Germans of New York, Brooklyn and Williamsburg. For the sake of decency the Republican battalions should have adopted a different cognomen.'

EARLY VICE .-- Lord Shaftesbury recently stated, as the result of hispersonal investigation, that "of all the adult male criminals in London, not two in a hundred who lived an honest life up to the age of twenty, afterwards enter upon a course of crime," and that "almost all who enter upon such a course, do so betwee since always found it an effectual protection from all mainrious complaints. On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it mircouldus powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun.--Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from limithesecret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtue of the article have induced a full balinf in the minds of the natives in the mircoulous healing powers of their Priests.
