

Col. Curtin, and all these zealous advocates of protection? (Applause.) They are to be... The measure is to be taken on the 1st of August... The tariff is a question of life and death to the North... The tariff is a question of life and death to the North... The tariff is a question of life and death to the North...

Let us give another instance illustrating the industry of our countrymen in the tariff. Under the tariff of 1842, although the laborers received employment through their wages, they were not as well as they would have been, because the profits of the manufacturers were greatly diminished. But in 1857 a bill was passed which still further reduced the duties of the tariff of 1842. This bill was passed by Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts, then Speaker of the House—a Republican of the very blackest dye (laughter and applause). The bill was reported by the Committee on Ways and Means, and was passed by the House on the 21st of July, 1857. It was then sent to the Senate, where it was reported by the Committee on Finance, and was passed by the Senate on the 21st of August, 1857. It was then signed by the President.

Now, gentlemen, I wish you to understand my views upon this question. I said before, that there can be no tariff for the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North.

Let me now say a few words in regard to this tariff. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North.

Now, gentlemen, I wish you to understand my views upon this question. I said before, that there can be no tariff for the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North. I said that the tariff is a question of life and death to the North.

Let us now say a few words in regard to this tariff. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North. It is a question of life and death to the North.

MEETING IN CORNWALL!

Another Tremendous Outpouring OF THE DEMOCRACY.

A COUNTY MEETING TAKEN DOWN BY A CLUB MEETING!

THE CAMP FIRES BURNING.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

On Saturday evening last the Foster Club of Lebanon, met at the public house of Joseph Bowman in Cornwall township. Although arrangements had been made to take a pretty big crowd from Lebanon, yet when the time for starting arrived it was found that not more than one-half of the number were present.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

THE OPPOSITION MASS MEETING OF THURSDAY.

Our political opponents of this county held a "Grand Mass Meeting" in Lebanon, on Thursday last.

The number in attendance was about 100,000; there might have been a few less, but as no procession was formed to give an opportunity for a count (a very shrewd proceeding), each one is at liberty to guess, and as my reasonable figure would have given would have received disapprobation, we preferred to limphorse here as well as most of those of the opposition in Pennsylvania. Delegations from most of the townships of Lebanon county, were in attendance.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Who is most valiant when fighting wind mills or men of bucrum, cowards before the bold leader of the Democracy, and shuns the single combat.

Colonel Curtin prefers a campaign where he has no enemy before him.

Mr. Mumma, of Harrisburg, is a pretty good story teller, but as we have at least five thousand men in Lebanon county—who can tell the same stories much better than he, the propriety of his afflicting a mass meeting is questionable.

Our young fellow citizens, the Junior Wide Awakes, carried a banner on Thursday, inscribed whereon was, "Young in years, but strong in principles."

Some one, said to have been E. H. Rauch, Clerk of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, made a speech at the Republican meeting, on Thursday, which clapped the climax in the wishy-washy "Mass Meeting."

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The meeting was organized at the Court House, by the appointment of G. Dawson Coleman, Esq., as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

THE ONLY PREPARATION Having proofs as strong as those as EXPEL THE DOUBTS OF ALL.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

Physicians of the most advanced schools will give their unqualified approval and recommend it for all cases of eruptions of the skin, such as the face, neck, chest, arms, hands, feet, etc.

LEBANON COUNTY STEAM PLANING MILL

Located in Lebanon, Pa. Manufactures steam engines, boilers, machinery, etc.

WALNUT STREET WALL PAPERS

Large stock of wall papers, ready for sale.

JACOB K. STONE

Manufacturer of steam engines and machinery.

LEBANON COUNTY STEAM PLANING MILL

Manufactures steam engines, boilers, machinery, etc.

WALNUT STREET WALL PAPERS

Large stock of wall papers, ready for sale.

JACOB K. STONE

Manufacturer of steam engines and machinery.