THE CORNER.

A Sunday or two since, at Grace Church, says the Home Journal, a young gentleman put his hat under the scat, and shortly afterward two prepossessing young ladies sat next to him. At the conclusion of the service the ladies left the church first, and the gentleman stooped in search of his hat, and, to his surprise, found it gone. He called the sexton and applied to that worthy functionary for advice. Mr. Brown suggested that it might have been caught in the ladies' crinoline; and entangled in the crinoline sure enough it was. After bobbing against one of the young ladies' ankles for a distance of about twenty yards, the hat dropped out, much to the astonishment and surprise of those following.

SEED CORN.—Now is the time to save it. Go through the field before you harvest the crop, and select the hardest and most forward ears, and as far as practicable take the best of the surprise of the surprise of the surprise of the selections who wish garments made up in the most fashiomable style and best manner, are invited to call. He has lately received the New York, Philadelphia, Parls and London reports of Spring and Summer Fashions. Surprise and the best workmen employed, he guarantees that all work entrusted to him will be done in a satisfactory, he respectfully solicits public favor. To ALLORS!—Just received and for sale the N. York and Philadelphia Report of Spring a Summer Fashions at the field before you harvest the crop, and select the hardest and most forward ears, and as far as practicable take the best of functionary for advice. Mr. Brown as far as practicable take the best of two from stalks bearing duplicates .-Braid the husks together of some 12 or 20 ears, and hang the bunch upon nails or rafters in a dry loft—the garret of a farm-house is a good place. No matter how dry and warm or smoky. Seed-corn kept in the loft of a smoky log cabin never fails to vegetate when planted in the Spring. If seed-corn is left exposed to damp weather and freezing, the germ is often destroyed. So, carefully save your seed-corn, and do it now, to-day.

FASHIONS.—Paris Fashions for September, in "Le Follet," announce that robes for full dress are trimmed with robes for full dress are trimmed with narrow flounces or ruches, and guipure, and admit only of lace shawls or white silk scarfs covered with lace, being worn with them. Paletots, with sleeves, are still worn, even in jaconets or muslins. When made in light materials, they are accompanied by a deep rointed collar, trimmed with a deep-pointed collar, trimmed with a flounce, which is repeated round the

OLD ABE'S LIBERALITY.—Old Abe contributed fifty dollars to the fund for purchasing Sharpe's rifles for Jim Lane and John Brown in Kansas.— We suppose this would buy two rifles. Possibly one of these rifles is the one with which Lane shot poor Jenkins when he came to get a bucket of water from his own well; and

DR MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RATIVE PILLS & IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carborn by combustion in Hydreton. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. both in Burope and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhea, Dysentory, Incipient Consumption, Sorofulous, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fayers. Pimples on the Face. sm, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, ism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, dc., dc.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which he description nor written attestation-would render credible. Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhood, have suddedly re-uppeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferes, geneciated stations of apparent marsamiss, sanguiscous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and despendences on which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS ATTENDEMORS of all thinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this propharation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being excitly and over-heating; and goutly regularly-apperion, even in the most obstinate cases of costivoness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagraeable sepaction.

It is this latter proporty, among others, which makes without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latier proporty, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Pules, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Cottiveness. ness.
In unchecked DIARRHOEA, even when advanced to

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, deblitating songh, and remittent heetle, which generally indicate INOIPLENT CONSUMPTION this remedy has alwayed the slarm of friends said; physicians, in saveral very gratifying and interesting injections. In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated from has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known labilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited toghts remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them. arily affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—
