THE CORNER.

WALKER'S CAPTURE. The following account of Walker's capture, is from the New-Orleans Del.

ta, viz :---"He was first attacked, after his retreat from Truxillo, at a place call-od Roman, by a party of Hondurans, led by a French desperado who had been released from prison at the Balize, where he was under sentence of death, with a promise of pardon on the condition that he captured Walk. April 11, 1860. the condition that he captured Walk. er. The Hondurans, under the lead of this ruffian, made a a vigorous as-sault on Walker's camp, but were met with great steadiness and coolness; and repulsed with the loss of half their men. During the fight, the of this ruffian, made a a vigorous as-sault on Walker's camp, but were met their men. During the fight, the French brigand, who led the party, made a desperate. effort to capture the General, and succeeded in wounding him, but was finally killed by the General himself. Retreating in good order further down the coast, Walker reached a place called Cotton Wood. or Limas, where he was again attacked and again repulsed his assailants. Continuing hisretreat, hs reached the river called Tinto, or Black River, where he encamped.

The natives still pursued and threatened him, but Walker kept them at a distance, until information having been sent to Commander Salmon, of the British ship Icarus, who was off mero, the coast, accompanied by a schooner having on board a force of Honduran soldiery-and the British commander sent up a strong force, composed of sailors and marines of the Icarus and of the Honduran soldiery, who, sur-rounding Walker's camp, compelled his surrender. Hesurrendered to the British commander, who asked him and Col. Rudler of what country or Government they claimed protection. Walker's answer was, 'That of Nicaragua.' He was then asked if he desired to place himself under the protection of the British flag. He replied, 'No; that he had no claims on that Government.' 'Then.' it is said the British officer replied, 'as you have no Government, I will insure you one,' and ordered that he be delivered over to the Monduran officer, who had him and Col. Rudler ironed.

The whole party was then taken back to Truxillo, and the men were placed under British protection, and Walker and Rudler were imprisoned (in irons) in the fort.

A WISE PRECAUTION.-A man traveling, entered a tavern, and seeing no man present but the landlord and a negro, seated himself, and entered into a conversation with the negro.-Shortly, he asked the negro if he was dry? Sambo said he was.-Stranger told him to go to the bar and take something at his expense.-Negro did so and shortly landlord says to the stranger-"Are you acquainted with that nigger ?"

"No, never saw him before; but why do you ask ?"

"I supposed so from your convereation with him, and asking him to

"Oh," said the stranger, "I was ex-perimenting. The fact is, I was dry berimenting. The fact is, I was dry oo, and I thought if your liquor did not kill the nigger in fifteen minutes, would venture to take some my-elf." Landlord's curiosity was fully sattoo. and I thought if your liquor did not kill the nigger in fifteen minutes, I would venture to take some my. self"

tism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c., &c. In cases of GENERAL DEMILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of ner-vous and magning energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an ex-tent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhood, have sud-defly reappeared in this buy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal fiscances of this kind are attested of female Suf-ferers, emacined widding of apparent marsanas, san-guneous exhaustion, critical changes, and that compli-cation of nervous: and dypoptic aversion to air and ex-actise for which the physician has no name.
