THE CORNER.

A NATION OF PIGMIES.

To the south of Kaffa and Susa there is a very sultry and humid country, with many bamboo woods, inhabited by the race called Dokos, who are no bigger than boys of ten years old; that is, only four feet high. They have a dark, olive-colored comage state, like the beasts; having neither houses, temples, nor holy trees, like the Gallas, yet possessing something like the Gallas, yet possessing something like the gallas, yet possessing the same same same and dispatch, and entire satisfaction guaranteed.

April 11, 1860. something like an idea of a higher being called Yer, to whom in moments of wretchedness and anxiety they pray-not in an erect posture, but reversed, with the head on the ground, and the feet supported upright against a tree or stone. In prayer tney say "Yer, if thou really dost exist, why dost thou allow us thus to be slain? We do not ask thee for food and clothing for we live on serpents, ants and since. Thou hast made us, why are the fashions should be the subscriber know of the fact, so that he can make his arrangements accordingly.

The Dokos have no chief, no laws, no weapons; they do not hunt nor till the ground, but live solely on fruits, roots, mice, serpents, ants, honey and the like, climbing trees and gathering the fruits like monkeys, and both sexes go completely naked. They have thick, protruding lips, flat noses and small eyes; the hair is not wooly, and is worn by the women over the shoulders. The hunt nor till the ground, but live the women over the shoulders. The nails on the hands and feet are allowed to grow like the talons of vultures, and are used in digging for ants and tearing to pieces the serpents, which they devour raw, for they are unacquainted with fire.—

but have no regular marriages, no settled home, each in perfect independence, going whither fancy leads.
The mother nurses her child only for a short time, accustoming it as soon as possible to the eating of ants and serpents; and as soon as the child can help itself, the mother lets it depart whither it pleases. Although these people live in thick woods, and conceal themselves amongst the trees, yet they become the prey of the slave-hunters, of Susa, Kaffa, Dumbaro, and Kulla; for whole regions of their woods are encircled by the hunters, so that the Dokos cannot easily escape. When the slave hunters come in sight of the poor creatures, they hold up clothes of bright colors, singing and dancing, upon which the Dokos allow themselves to be captured without resistance, knowing from experience, that such resistance is fruitless, and can lead only tance is fruitiess, and can lead only to their destruction. In this way thousands can be captured by a small band of lunters; and once captured they become quite docile. In slavery the Dokos retain their predilection for feeding on mice, serpents and ants, although on that account often punished by their masters, who in other respects are attached to them, as they are docile and obedient, have few wants, and enjoy good health, for which reasons they are never tooleases ard unknown among them, they die only of old age, or through the assaults of their enemies.

It cannot be decided whether these Dokos are the pigmies who, accordto their destruction. In this way Dokos are the pigmies who, according to Herodotus, were discovered near a great river in the vicinity of Central Africa by two youths dispatched by Etearch, king of the Oasis of Ammon; yet I can bear witness that I heard of these little people not only in Shoa, but also in Ukambani, two degrees to the south, and in Barava, a degree and a half to the north of the equator. In Barava a slave was shown to me who accorded completely with the description of the Dokos. He was four feet high, very thick set, dark complexioned, and lively, and the people of the place assured me that he was of the pigmy race of the interior. It is not impossible, too, that circumstances, such as continued rains from May to January, and other means, may contribute to produce a diminutive people of stunted development in the interior of Africa. A priori therefore the reports collected from different and mutually independent points of Africa cannot be directly contradicted; only care must be taken to examine with caution the fabu. lous element mixed up with what may be true by native reporters. In the Suahili dialect "dogo" means "small" and in the language of Enarea "doko" is indicative of an ignorant and stupid person.

D^R MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygon and Carborn by combustion in Hydrs gen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in the control of the contr both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz.:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoga, Dysentery, Incidient Consumption, Sergulous, Theoremseis. Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruction, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheuma tism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, nem, intermittent fevers, Pimples on the Face, & & c., & c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhood, have suddedly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal isstances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emachated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and excrise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being axciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ver being a gastro purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, aneng others, which makes disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalyboate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Costineness.

In unchecked DIARRHEA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and malignant, the effects have been equally astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated two has had far more than the good effect of the most In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females caunot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

The RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be In INTERAITTEENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

count of him and his people in our Pamphiets and Almanace—to be had gratis, from the Agents for these Pills.

The riventor and manufacturer of "Judson's Mountain Herb Pills," has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited nearly every country in the world. He spent over six years among the Indians of the Rocky Mountains and of Mexico, and it was thus that the "Mountain Brills" were discovered. A very interesting account of his adventures there, you will find in our Almanac and Pamphlet.

It is an established fact, that all diseases arise from IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or un healthy matter gets mixed with it, it is all at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every nerve feels the poison, and all the vital organs quickly complain.—The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of hile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feeble. The lungs become clogged with the poisonous matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the fountain-head of life—the Blood! As if you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purify the blood, but regunerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivalled as a CURE FOR BILIOUS DISEASES, rivalled as a

Pleasant indeed, is it to us, that we are able to place through the blood and fluids of the bedy, and cause the sufferer to brighten with the flush of beauty and health.
