THE LEGISLATURE.

The State Legislature met on Tuesday, anuary 1st, 1861. The Senate organized at 3 o'clock, P. M., by the election of Ros-ERT M. PALMER, of Schuylkill county as Speaker, and Russell Errett, of Allegheny, as clerk. The House met at noon, and organized by electing Elisha W. Davis, of Venango county, as Speaker, and E. H. RAUCH, of Carbon, as Clerk. The six Democrats in the Senate voted for Mr. SHINDEL, of Lehigh, for Speaker; and the 27 Democrats in the House, voted for Dr. CHARLES H. HILL, of Montgomery, for Speaker.

The Speaker's address in each branch, on being inducted into the chair, was conservative in its tone, and it is a significant circumstance, that both recommended the repeal of any laws which may be upon the statute books conflicting in letter or spirit with the faithful execution of all the provisions of the constitution.

Smith, (Rep.) in the Senate, and Randall, (Dem.) in the House, introduced resolutions relative to the present national troubles. The Senate resolutions were referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Smith, Hall, Shindel, Ketcham and Clymer; who, on Wednesday, reported them, with amendments.

The Governor's Message was transmitted to both Houses, and read, on Wednesday at noon.

On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr, Smith's joint resolutions relative to the National crisis, passed Committee of the Whole without amendment. General nominations for UnitedStates Senator were made; and after the reception of several Messages from the Governor, relative to the bills passed at the close of the last session, the Senate adjourned over to Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the House, on Thursday, a Committee was drawn to investigate the case of the contested seat of Mr. Pughe, of Luzerne county. A number of general nominations for the United States Senator were made. Mr. Smith, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution, appointing the Governor of the State, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and a third person to be appointed by a joint resolution of the Legislature, Commissioners to meet like Commissioners from other States, in the City of Philadelphia, on the 22d of February next, for the purpose of proposing such amendments to the Constitution as may be deemed necessary to the restoration of peace to our distracted conutry. Such amendments to be submitted to Congress for their approval. The resolution was laid over, and the House adjourned till Monday afternoon.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above WINES and LIQUORS, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New-York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schiedap. Mr. Wolfe, in lail letter to me speaking of the purity of his Wixes and Liquons, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchaut of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brannt and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and facinite of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Read the following from the New York Courier:

Enonmous Business for one New York Merchant.

We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to risit UDOLPHO WOLFE'S extensive werehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 12 and 21, Marketfield street.

Lis stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases, the Brundy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1336 to 1856; and ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1336 to 1856; and ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1336 to 1856; and ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1336 to 1850; and ten thousand cases—of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jampica and 8t. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also has three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wines, &c., in cash. under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wotze's sales of Scnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronnge of every lover of bits species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for merical use should sond their orders direct to Mr. Wotze, until every Apothecary in the land make to the poisonous stuff from t

Liquons.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of what dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitation, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.
