den resolutions, and they were taken up as the den resolutions, and they were taken up as the special order. After a short discussion, however, they were laid over to make way for the Pacific Railroad bill, which had also been appointed as special order. A motion to postpone its considi-ation indefinitely was defeated—Ayes, 12; Noes, 39. Subsequently two other niotions to postpone it—one of them made by Mr. Crittenden—were defeated, and after considerable debate the Sec-

ate adjourned pending a motion by Mr. Benja-min, of Louisiana, to amend the section relating to grantees. In the House, Mr. Harris, of Mary.
