ABOUT POULTRY.-Messrs. David Mcof considerable litigation. In plain words, they stole chickens got caught and are now in jail. Mr. William Blistone, the owner of some sixteen ing carefully tucked away his property, safely, as he supposed, from the depredations of coons, skunks, cats, et cetera. Not a sound broke the stillness of the night; nor was the purity of the newly fallen snow apparently disturbed by any nocturnal prowlers. Appearances are sometimes deceptive, as Mr. Blistone quickly discovered in the morning. The snow near his chicken coop had been disturbed. Many marks of feet and bags were perceptible. Taking this and that together, and the absence of all the chickens, the idea very naturally struck him that thieves had been about. Towering with indignation, he followed the thieves, in their tracks, through the newly fallen snow. He soon discovered the chimney of the building where he supposed his chickens, and On the 23d inst., in Museabine, Iown, Mrs. Stine, those after whom they had followed, were stowed awny. He did not, however, rush into the lion's den, seize his property, and kick the thieves, as many others would have done. He was cautious and stragetic. When he was pretty confident where the land lay," he beat a retreat, sought out Constable Shantz, and imparted to him his wrongs and his discovery. The two hied to Esquire Gleim, obtained a search warrant, and then on the Fith inst., in Millerook, William Seibert, proceeded legally to the receivery of the property and arrest of the thieves. Imagine the consternation of the inmates of that, peaceful family upon the appearance of the smiling countenances and towering forms of Messrs. Shantz and Blistone in the doorway. It was a tableau worth a fortune to a theatrical magager. We will not describe it. Some of the chickens were found in

No medicine existed which would speedily, pormanently, effectually, and radically cure and expel these diseases from the system until Dr. Geden made known his discovery of THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Such is its remarkable power and peculikrity, that ases which for years have ballied the most potent medicine and the highest professional skill, yield to this remedy as readily as if the discuse were but of a day's standing. For all discuses of the STOMACH and DI-GESTIVE ORGANS, and for GENERAL DEBILITY it is equally salutary and certain.

Hostetter's Colebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament, which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel fintered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. A GREAT MEDICINE FOR FEMALES.

Hundreds of stifful lights have been invented and sold purporting to be specific in the various diseases and de rangements to which the delicate form of woman render her subject. The result of these atlanulants has been impart momentary activity to the nevous systems, and false vigor to the muscles; but this relief has been succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before; and the repeated attempts of invalids to build themselves up-by those false remedies, have finally ended in destroying what little vital organization was left. But in using "BURRILAVE"S HOLLAND BITTERS;" you will find he such disastrous results. It is a purely vegetable compound, preparedon strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the colebrated Holland Professor, Berhave.
