

THE CORNER.

A MIRACLE. The mention of almsgiving recalls a somewhat ludicrous story of modern date, where a most important miracle was wrought.

At day-break, Father Bridaine says according to custom, and went to his prayers at the neighboring church.

When he asked for alms. "Alas! my friend, I have nothing," said the good priest, mechanically putting his hand into his breeches pocket.

He gave the money to the beggar, and hastened into the church to return thanks to God.

The curate turned pale, put his hand into his pocket, and in an instant perceived that Father Bridaine, in getting up in the dark, had taken the wrong pair of breeches.

An INDIAN'S SHREWDSNESS.—The Chittauogue Democrat relates the following:—At an early stage in the proceedings of the Erie and N. Y. City R. R., while the Directors were negotiating with the chiefs for the land around Jenison Hill, the Colonel and others had made some strong speeches depicting the worthlessness of the land.
