WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1861. HOME AFFAIRS.

MR. LAUBACH, at his Furniture Ware Rooms, on Market street, has the largest and best assortment of Furniture, including an elegant assortment of Chairs, that can be found in the State outside of the large cities; and while he admits that larger assortments may be found in some of the cities, he denies that better furniture can be produced. His prices are very low.

Use "LEMBERGER'S Frost Cure" for the relief and cure of Frosted Limbs, Feet, Toes, Hands, Ears, &c. It has now stood the test of three winters and can be safely recommended as fast the article. On Saturday morning a week Mr. Charles Himmelberger, of Myerstown, Lebanon county, engaged in the milling business, while passing over the Lebanon Valley railroad, on which he has two cars running, fell through the trestle work of the bridge at Sixth street, Read. ing, receiving terrible injuries. He was brought to his home, and is now rapidly recovering.

A BAD OMEN .- We are informed that the Monument at Valley Forge, which has, for many years, commemorated the beroic martyrdom of the men of the Revolution who perished there during the dark Winter of '77, was blown down on or about the fourth of this month—the day of Lincoln's inauguration. A gloomy omen, this, for the future of the country those who choose a constant business, can rely on confor which the heroes of Valley Forge fought!

The Town Council met on Monday R. James, General Agent, Milan, Ohio. evening, in the Council room. After the reading of the minutes the following orders were drawn, vis :- S. J. A. Huffnagle & Co., have sold their store in this borough to Mr. B. F. Swartz, one of the old firm of Swartz & Brother.

FIRST OF APRIL CHANGES .- Those of our subseribers who intend removing their places of residence about the first of April, and desiring the place of sending their papers changed will be good enough to give us timely notice. Early attention to this matter will save trouble, and prevent the loss of papers.

THE READING AND COLUMBIA RAILROAD. has been put under contract, and will be commenced as soon as the Engineers can prepare the work—two weeks from this at the outside. The terms of the contract were finally settled some two weeks finder, in Philadelphia, by the Committwo weeks since, in Philadelphia, by the Committee appointed by the Board of Directors—Messrs.
Kaufman, Shoch and the President of the road,
Mr. Koulgmacher—with James Moore & Co., the contractors. The contract was signed formally at the monthly meetings of the board in Lancaster, on last Monday week. Mossrs. Moore & Co., have taken the road at their standing offer$600,000—and are to finish the grading, masonry and superstructure, prepare the road for ballasting, cross-ties and track—from the east end of Columbia Bridge to the intersection with the Lebanon Valley road near Reading, the Company Lebanon Valley road near Reading, the Company to settle for the right of way. The work is to be ready for track in fifteen months. By the contract the road is to be commenced at the Columbia end of the line, at which the citizens of that believes are greatly reloced.

bis end of the line, at which the citizens of that bologin are greatly rejoiced.

The land agent, Mr. Good, with Mr. McLenegan, one of Mr. Lyons's assistants, have been in the neighborhood of Columbia for some days past, endeavering to arrive at a settlement with property owners for damages and right of way. This is the only obstacle now in the way of a rapid prosecution of the work.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.— We learn from the West Chester Jeffersonian, that two young negroes, named Lewis and Green, have been arrested and committed to prison on suspicion of being the murderers of Jacob Masch the Jew pedler, on last Saturday week, about nine miles west of West Chester, and near the village of Mertonville. The murderers, it is thought, secured about $150 in money, and a gold watch and chain.

Jacob S. Haldeman, of Pennsylvania, has been nominated as Minister Resident at Stockholm.

Wanners on Wonen.—It has been determined to genove all the women who may fill any of the Post Offices. The Post mistress at Columbia, Lancaster county, is shortly to be decapitated to make way for a Lincolnite of that place.

A Girl advertises in a German newspaper for a situation at bar-maid or waitress in a refreshment salcon. Among her qualifications for such a position, she can cut 225 pieces of bread and butter, of satisfactory appearance, out of one pound of bread and two ounces of butter.

FEVER AND AGUE. And the various affections consequent upon a disordere STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains.
Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others-effected a decided cure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Hulland Professor, Borbave. Its reputation at hobit produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland schiered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with thein still handed down the tradition of its value. R is now offered to the Americain public, knowing that its ruly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particilially recommended to those persons whose caustititions may have been impaired by the continuous use of arden's spirits, or, other forms of dissipation. Generally instantificous if effect, it finds its way directly to the sent of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the droughing spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and rigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this s beverage will be disappolited; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grajeful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties. STOMACH OR LIVER,

The deputine highly concentrated Borhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE Dolland per bottle, or Six bottles for Five Dolland.
