"PROVIDENTIALLY DIRECTED." DEVOUTLY inclined persons frequently imagine that the suggestions of their own human nature are the intimations and directions of God. They love to be guided by Him, and they love to think their plearant decires and purposes are imspired by Him; thus they easily deceive themselves. An amusing instance of this took place at a certain conference. Among the attendants was a very beautiful, intelligent looking young lady, who drew the admiring gaze of many eyes, particularly eyes masculine, always on the look out for pretty feminine faces. During the intermission, at noon, a spruce young minister step-

You had better wait awhile. It is not best to to be hasty in determining the source of such impressions, said the prudent elder.

And he had well said, for hardly were the steps of the second youth cold at his side, ere a third approached with the same story, and while the worthy confident marvelled, a fourth drew near with the question—with the question-Did you notice the fine, noble looking woman sitting near your left?" sitting near your left?"

"Well, sir," went on the fourth victim of that one unsuspicious girl, "it is strongly born in my make proposals of marriage to that lady. He has impressed me that she is to be my wife." The elder could hold in no longer "Impossible! Impossible!" he exclaimed in an excited tone. "The Lord never could have

He owned a beautiful country seat, situated on the banks of a delightful river, to which his lady was much attached, and which she visited dy was much attached, and which she visited regularly every Sunday morning. She had for this purpose a charming little mule, with splendid trappings, and of which great care was taken. For three days previous to the lady's accustomed visit, the husband had deprived the animal of drink, so that it was almost famished. Sunday morning came, the lady set out on her mule, accompanied by her husband, who was anxious to

The poor beast sought water on all sides, and had no sooner discovered the river than with the rapidity of lightning he started off and stopped not until he had plunged himself head and ears into the river. The bank was steep, and the stream both rapid and deep at this place, and lady and mule were soon buried beneath the waves. The husband regretted the loss—of the mulq—but reasoned like a philosopher, that to accomplish one's purpose, sacrifices must be made.

well@mendation. 724 Arch Street, Philadelphia they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this. From Hon. E. Jor Monnis, late Minister to Italy. The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.

March 8, 1861-3m. HOSTETTER'S

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTER'S CELEBRATE medicinal properties contained in the prepara-tion, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country recommend the Bitters to their patients, but recommend the Bitters to their patients, but recommend the Bitters to their patients, but swallow both together. are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved Godsend to regions where fever and and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter | from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature. Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recupe rate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to hear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers gene-rally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorathat receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary supation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetten's Celebrated STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

The Above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford co, and by Dr. Newton of the Ecleric College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his let cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher." and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the agents.

We also refer to the case of Nanuy Bleakuey, of Election, Armstrong country, Pa, cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansouville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cared by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.
