A conversation between two young beginners in Housekeeping .- Where did you buy that splendid Furniture?"

"Why I bought it all at Owen Laubach's in Lebanon."

"Indeed! Well, I must contess it looks much better than mine, which I bought in Reading. But then, I suppose it is sold at a much higher price."

"9, no! I priced Furniture in Reading, and several other places, and could find no Furniture so splendid.

The Act laying out a State road in Lebanon

The 20th annual exhibition of the Gothean Literary Society, of Franklin and Marshall College, at Lancaster, Pa., was held on Thursday evening. A large and brilliant audience was present. Among the exercises we notice the following by students from Lebanon county :the subject of which was the well known charac ter of the Wandering Jew, who drove Christ Ininting under the burden of the cross, from his door, and was cursed by Him in these few but expressive words, "Tarry thou till I come." The Jew was doomed to leave home, friends, family and his native land, so dear to every Jew, and wander over the earth a homeless outenst, vainly seeking rest and relief from remorse of conscience, which he could only find at the second coming of Christ. He beheld Jerusalem in her prime, and Hall, also after the cruel Nero had laid waste the city, 16th. and devastated the whole country. He was a si-lent spectator of the world's history during eigh teen centuries. The legend is a condensed his-

The peem opened with a brief allusion to the deplorable condition of the country preceeding the crossing of the Delaware, and the destitution which prevailed in the American army at that time. The historical facts attending that heroic feat, and the events which quickly followed at Trenton, were very artistically cally interwoven in a musical measure. The poem was read in a clear distinct voice, and proved a very pleasant feature of the evening.

The Young Men's Christian Association of this borough have removed their library and furniture from D. S. Raber's building, to the Hall in the 3d story of Gracif's building, where the meetings will hereafter be held.

Mr. Editor:—In your issue of last week, you mentioned, in your local column, that "Rev. Henry, of Pinegrove, has accepted the charge of the Lutheran Church at Fredericksburg, this county." ITEMS .- The new steam mill of Moess Early, of East Hanover, Dauphin county, was consumed by fire on Saturday night a week, with its contents. It contained about 500 bushels of wheat, and some other grain, about 40 barrels of flour, &c.; damage about $10,000. Insured in a Harrisburg Company to the amount of $5,000 .-How the fire originated is entirly unknown. The mill was only about six months in opera- of amazement, wonderment and delight. tion, and this was the second time already that it was on fire. Lewis Smith and family, Henry Fisher and family, Samuel Brickler and family, several families' of the Schreaders, Philip Riddle and family, and a number of others left this place lest week for new homes in the west.—

THE GRAIN CROP.—Our neighbors of Lancaster county have made a careful examination of the grain crop, and they have come to the conclusion that it has been materially injured by the frost during the past winter, and it is doubtful whether the tender plant will be able to recuperate. On many farms the roller is being applied, in the hope that ; pressure will aid the disturbed plants in taking root in the soil again, but whether this experiment will answer the expectations of those engaged in it, remains

Also, it is good for them as well as for us, to have all the inevitable petty domes tic "bothers" go over in their absence; to effect which aught to be one of the principal aims of the mistress of a family. Let them, if possible, return to a quiet, smiling home, with all its small annoyance brushed away like the dust and cin-ders from the grate—which, en passant, is one of the first requisites to make a fireside look comfortable. It might be as woll, too, if the master him self could contrive to leave the worldly mud of the day at the scraper outside his door.

A SPLENDID EXHIBITION COMING TO LEB-ANON.—We are pleased to announce to our readers that Morrison's Grand Pan-tee na-thec-a, one of the largest and most splendid exhibitions in the world, will visit this place and exhibit at the Yown Hall, for three nights, commencing April

One of the createst remedies that has ever, been laid before the public, for Fever and Acue, and which have received the highest emoniums from the press and the people, is DR. J. HOSTETTER'S CELEBERTERS. Who would endure the tortures arising from this terrible disease, when it can be so ensily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers and icy chills, alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a nere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved. None but the foolish and weak would hositate to procure these valuable filters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by all druggists and dealers generally everywhere. HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or bluzoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the prepara-tion, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its flicacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of un-alloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature. Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from atomach de-rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigora tors that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary cupation, and nursing mothers, will consul their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION .- We caution 'the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South Ame-
