WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1861.

The order for twenty-five additional regiments from this state, by the Governor has been countermanded. It appears that the requisition was made by Gen. Patterson, who has the power vested in him by the Government, and he made it under the apprehension that there was an actual want. The requisition was countermanded in consequence of such large numbers being sent forward by other

This is said to be an era of good feeling; that party politics are discarded, &c. This is perceived every day in the action of the Democracy, who stand aloof from party feeling-sustain the administration, and throw themselves into the present contest for the integrity of the Union and honor of the flag with a will and vigor that cannot fail of success. All other parties do the same, but at the same time they have not entirely forgotten their party fealty. Some of the leading Republican journals of the country take every occasion to insiduously rake up old sores and intimate disloyalty on the part of prominent Democrats. This is wrong and may yet do more harm to the administration than the powder and ball of the rebels. We admit that the unselfish patriotism of the Democracy may be some cause for envy and jealously, but, instead of showing such feelings others should only try to emulate, and if possible, surpass them in the nobler qualities of the human heart. 'Of the journals thus alluded to the Philadel. phia Bulletin is the most rancorous; the N. Y. Times and Tribune are not entirely free of the same bigotry—to call it nothing worse.

The State Legislature assembled in extra session on Tuesday week in obedience to the Governor's proclamation. There was a full attendance of members. The various subjects touched upon in the Governor's Mes. appointments at the hands of the Lingoln Adsage, were referred to the proper committees, and a joint resolution was adopted, to confine the business of the session exclusively to these mat. ters. On Thursday a bill was reported, authorizing a loan of $3,000,000 for arming and supporting the military forces of the State, and authori- net by Messrs. Chase, Blair and Cameron, while zing the Governor to call immediately into service fifteen regiments of ter have now come round and the administration cavalry and infantry, and such numas the exigencies of the country may | ly announced.—The question is often asked, require. John Brown's Son Enlisting Negroes for the War.

A letter in the Cleveland Herald, from Youngstown, Ohio, dated April 28, says:

"I have just learned from a canal boat captain who reached this place hast evening, that John Brown, Jr., is encomped by 'Beaver river, about midway between New Castle, 'Pa., and the Ohio river, with four hundred 'negroes, principally from Canada, whom he is practising in military drill. The captain of whom I speak brought a large amount of flour and other provisions from Pittsburgh for the camp. He did not learn the particular object of the gathering, but presumes it has some relation to a visit to Virginia.—proit has some relation to a visit to Virginia —pro-bably Harper's Ferry—when the proper time ar-rives. The camp is not more than a day's march from the Virginia line. The captain further states that 1,500 additional negroes are expected to reach the camp in a few days. They were well provisioned and supplied generally.

"Another canal boat has since arrived, whose captain confirms the report of steing a large ody of negroes encamped on the seven mile lack water."

BALTIMORE is completely hemmed in on both sides with an effective force, which is to be immediately employed in opening a passage through that city for the Federal troops, and restoring free communication between the North and the capital of the Republic. With this purpose, Major nesday for the camp at York with instructions to advance at once with an army of fifteen thousand men on Baltimore. A TERRIBLE OPERATION .- At the last meeting of the French Academy of Sciences, Dr. Massonenve read a paper on a terrible operation performed by him with perfect success. In 1855 he had been summoned to examine the state of a young man, whose right tibia was mortified throughout the whole extent of its diaphysis .-The amputation of the thigh had been recommended by several practitioners. Dr. Massoneuve, however, was of a different opinion. He chlorofor. mized his patient, and then effected an enormous longitudinal incision of thirty-five centimeters, (nearly forty-four nches) on the leg; at each extremity of this incision he made a transversal one, so as to make, as it were, a pair of fleshy folding doors, by which means the whole bone was laid bare. The periosteum was preserved, and the mortified bone cut out of it with great care. The operation succeeded beyond Expectation. Forty days after, the patient was enabled to walk with crutches; and the diseased leg is now not only perfectly healed, but has lost nothing in length, being only distinguishable from the other by a large sear. The young man is now strong and with his new bone he can run, jump, and go out a shooting, as if nothing had ever been the matter with him. A JOKE.—On one occasion, two or three friends came down for a day's shooting, and as they often did, in the evening they rowed out into the middle of the little lake in an old punt. They were full of spirits and had played off one or two practical okes, till, on getting out of the boat, leaving him last, one of them gave it a push, and out went my father into the water. Fortunately it was the landing place and the water was not deep, but he was wet through. It was playing with edged tools to venture on such tricks with him, and he quietly determined to turn the tables. Accordingly he presently began to complain of cramps and stitches, and at last went indoors. His friends, getting rather ashamed of their rough fun, persuaded him to go to bed, which he did. His groans and complaints'increased so alarmingly, that they were almost at their wits' ends pointment by the Governor, of a Ma. what to do. My father, at length, as well as he could speak, gave out in a sepulchral voice unfortunate joke, and to beseech him to believe in their remorse, he burst into a perfect shout of laughing, ed the joke.

WRITING TO THE LORD .- An exchange states that at the breaking of ground for the commencement of the Lynchburg and Tennessee Railroad. at Lynchburg, a clergyman slowly and solemnly read a manuscript prayer, at the conclusion of which an old negro man, who had been resting with one foot on his spade, and his arms on the handle, looking intently in the chaplain's face, straightened himself up, and remarked very audibly, "Well, 1 reckon dat's de fust time de Lord's eber been writ, to on de subjec of railroads."

The President has issued anther blockade proclamation for the ports of Virginia and North Carolina. Thus the ports of 9 States are now in a state of blockade.

An armory, in place of that at Harper's Ferry, is to be established at Rock Island, Illinois.

The War Department has issued an order creating what is to be known as the Department of Annapolis, to embrace the city of Annapolis line of railroad from that city to Bladensburg, within seven miles of Washington, and twenty-one miles on each side of said road, which includes Baltimore, and the same published order makes brigadier General B. This continued for four or five weeks no one being able to solve the mystery, until one day as Mr. B. was at work near a stump, in the vicinity of his cow, yard, he discovered two large snakes about an inch and a half in diameter, and upon killing them they were found to be full of milk. The mystery was solved at once—these snakes had sucked the cow. Immediately after they had been killed she commenced giving her full quantity of milk; but frequently won't to the stump and lowed, as though she had too the stump and lowed, as the stump and lowed, as the stump

STRAY BRICKS AND FUCITIVE SHOTS .- It is said that when Col. Benjamio Butler, in com-mand of the Massachusetts Regiment, landed, some of the authorities of Annapolis protested against the passage of Massachusetts troops over Maryland soil when he replied: "Sir, we come not as citizens of Massachusetts, but as citizens tion to invade any State, but to protect the Capi-tol of our common country from invasion, We shall give no cause of offence, but there must be no fugitive shots or stray bricks on the way."

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM .- At a recent Boston festival the Star Spangled Banner was sung with he subjoined additions:

the subjoined additions:

[VERSE BY OLIVER WENDELL RICLMES.]
When our land is illumined with liberty's smile,

If a fee from within strike a blow at her glory,

Down, down with the traitor that dares to defile
