WONDERFUL MANUSCRIPT DIS-COVERIES.

The recent troubles in Syria are producing some very unexpected re-Bults. The revolt of the fanatical day, April 8th. The Full Session will open on Monday, Druses, and the retribution provoked by the excesses to which the insane hatred of the Maronite Christians had led them, have resulted in opening to the gaze of the civilized world treasures which but for that contest might have still remained amongst the must ty possessions of the convents of Palestine. Hardly have the scholars of the world ceased their congratulations over the famous Tischendorf manuscript—the most valuable literary over the famous Tischendorf manuscript—the most valuable literary treasure discovered in modern times —before the announcement is made that a rival has been found in an old Testament discovered at Nazareth, in comparison with which the former appears almost modern in its date.

This new treasure is a copy of the Pentateuch, and claims to be at least twenty-three hundred and sixty years old.

The best account of the matter which has thus far reached us is from the pen of Dr. Leyburn, now in Palestine, in a recent number of the Presbyterian. It appears that Professor Levishon, an eminent Oriental scholar, a friend of Tischendorf's, and for twenty years Professor of Hebrew in the University of St. Petersburg, has for some time been pursuing his studies with great zeal in Jerusalem, with special reference to the University soon to be erected there by the Russian Government.

Having returned to Jerusalem, the Professor pursued his ordinary work until some time after the Damascus and Lebanon massacres, when a fanatic Moslem from Damascus came down to Nazareth, and began to persecute three of the Samaritan Christians there, and on some petty charge had them cast into prison.—
Dr. Levishon, who had been consulted in the matter, inquired of the Russian Bishop at Jerusalem if the three Samaritans had no means of purchasing their ransom.

'None,' was the reply, 'they're very poor.'

Fro.a iton. Lewis D. Campell. M. C., Ohio.
My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have nave yet had one which presents to true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.
From Hon. E. Joy Monras, late Minister to Italy.
The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfainces as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and patranage of all who appreciate true art.
From Col. James Page.

From Col. JAMES PAGE. Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a minature in Oil Colors, audier the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasifie in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. he beautiful art. THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA. DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS. LIVER COMPLAINT. WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND.

FEVER AND AGUE. and the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colleky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appelite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervoits, Rheimatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely regetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Rechave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal writes must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drouping spirit, and, in fact, influing now health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties. STOMACH OR LIVER,
