TERMS: $1.50 A YEAR LEBANON, PA. WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 1861.

HOME AFFAIRS.

TURKISH SEED.—Fresh crop Turkish seed, just received and for sale in large and small quantities at Lemberger's Drug Store, Market St.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—On Wednesday afternoon, during the thunder storm, a servant girl, named Amanda Shuter, aged about 16 years, living with Mr. Joseph Bowman, in Cornwall township, was instantly killed by lightning.

CORNWALL, July 10th, 1861. Mr. DRESSER, Sir.—I noticed some time ago in your paper that you would like to know all that transpires in the country, to fill up the local columns of the Advertiser.

APPROX.—A son of Mr. Benjamin Donnelly, residing at Mr. Kline's farm, in Cornwall township, fell from a load of hay under the following circumstances: On Saturday morning he was engaged in the rear end of the wagon loading hay.

AND STILL ANOTHER.—As Mrs. Zellers was engaged in picking cherries on the farm of Henry Bueber, in Cornwall township, she fell down from a ladder, a distance of ten or twelve feet, and injured herself very badly, internally.

All of the above cases were attended by Dr. Amos S. Smith, of Cornwall, and are doing well under the circumstances.

ITEMS.

DROWNED.—On the third instant, a little girl, aged about sixteen months, daughter of Emanuel Miller, of Bethel township, fell into a tub of rain water and was drowned.

UNITED STATES.—We learn that a new post-office has been established in Union township, the county called Union Forge, and Daniel Borden appointed the Postmaster. Also, one in Bethel township, called Hamlin.

LEBANON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—We learn that the officers of this society do not intend that the war excitement shall make their annual exhibition a failure. They are preparing with unusual vigor for a successful fair.

THE MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR UNION HOSE COMPANY.—The members of the Junior Union Hose Company are requested to meet at the Union Fire Company's Hall, on Thursday evening, prepared to take part in the Fair Ground. It will be a great time.

THE LADIES OF LEBANON ARE MAKING arrangements to give a fair dinner to Capt. Ulrich's company of volunteers upon their return to Lebanon next week.

FRANK'S LETTER NEXT WEEK. Edward Hoffman and John Mollinger left this place on Saturday to join Capt. Lantz's company.

MR. D. M. KARMAN IS SELLING OFF his splendid stock of Hardware, &c., at Cost for Cash. See advertisement.

MR. WILLIAM D. BOLTZ HAS TAKEN MR. ARNOLD'S Railroad Hotel, at the Lebanon Valley Depot, lately kept by Mr. Ramler.

THE U. S. STEAMER FLAG, upon which our townsmen, the Midway and the World, were sailing, had quite a brisk engagement lately with a secession steamer of Savannah.

MISCELLANEOUS ENIGMA. I am composed of 8 letters: My 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, is what every one wishes to enjoy.

in depth, and it was quite amusing to see a number of our men tumbling in headforemost. This part of the programme called to memory historical reminiscences of the day when our forefathers crossed the Delaware River, when we had landed the river and greeted each other with hearty cheers and a rousing "tigger," our division (Gen. Negley's) moved to the right, and after proceeding about two miles, were ordered to make a quick march, and form in line of battle.

main until the close of the war.—The Regiment now in camp at Westchester, Boston, &c., are to be mustered into service on the 1st of August. — Captain Duncan N. Ingraham is in command on the 10th ult. He sprang the protection of the American flag over the adopted citizen Knott, and gave opportunity for such a piece of composition as the Huleman letter, in some respects the greatest letter that Daniel Webster wrote. — Major Taggart reported to Alexander Hays, and paid off the Fourth Pennsylvania Regiment. As the Major arrived at camp and intimated the object of his mission, a very cordial reception was extended to him by the boys. In less than four hours $20,000 were paid out.

THE GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM OF THE UNION.—Philadelphia possesses the most splendid Clothing Emporium in the country. It is an edifice of palatial structure in which the immense quantities of the most fashionable and equally splendid in respect to price and quality resources. But to its patrons its chief attractions are, first, the elegance of the garments for Gentlemen and Youth, manufactured there; secondly, the beauty and durability of the goods; and thirdly, the low price at which the goods are sold. We have had the pleasure to visit the store, and to see the goods as they are made, and to see the goods as they are made, and to see the goods as they are made.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SAMPLE OF THE SEVERAL LETTERS CONSTANTLY RECEIVING FOR THE STOMACH BITTERS: CANANDAUGUA, July 15, 1861. —As we are strangers, I have the pleasure to inform you that I have received your kind letter of the 10th inst., and in reply to inform you that I have received your kind letter of the 10th inst., and in reply to inform you that I have received your kind letter of the 10th inst.

WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION.—The wife of Mr. J. W. White, residing in Holland Township, Shickopee county, Wisconsin, suffered much from weakness of the stomach and indigestion. She had been under the care of several physicians, but without success. She purchased a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking it she felt better, and her appetite and strength returned.

WHOOPIING COUGH.—The chief cause of all rashes in children may be traced to this disease. It is a very contagious disease, and is characterized by a dry, hacking cough, which is often attended by vomiting and diarrhea. It is a very dangerous disease, and is often fatal.
